1999 MEDIA GUIDE

A LAND OF GIANTS.

Look up, Tennessee. Look up. There are giants among you. For only giants could stand on the banks of the Cumberland two decades ago, and see a gleaming new stadium rising up from the twisted iron of that industrial wasteland. See people from cities like Memphis and Knoxville and Chattanooga, from towns with names like Fall Branch and Adamsville, sitting next to each other, cheering for common goals. See a new prominence and prosperity, brought on by new business interests and new business leaders magnetically attracted to the unique opportunities and quality of living that we take for granted – all suddenly made visible by the Sunday afternoon and Monday night spotlights emanating from our new place on the NFL map.

Giants. Who dreamed of an electricity even TVA could not squeeze from this river. And who wished for a day when the sons of their own state could sit next to their fathers on this bank of the Cumberland, in this place with its peanut, hotdog and new-stadium smell. And remember it for the rest of their lives.

Titans. It is an appropriate name. For there are giants among us.

IN MEMORIAM

Lou Rymkus

*First Oilers Head Coach (1960-61)
1919-1998*

Named the first head coach of the Oilers on Jan. 3, 1960, Rymkus compiled a 12-7-1 record, leading the club to its first AFL Championship -- a 24-16 victory over the Los Angeles Chargers on Jan. 1, 1961.

Jesse Baker

*Oilers Defensive End (1979-87)
1957-1999*

Baker, who passed away in January from a heart attack, was the starting right defensive end during four of his nine seasons with the Oilers. His 66 QB sacks ranks third in franchise history behind Elvin Bethea and Ray Childress. A second-round draft pick from Jacksonville State, he was the NFL's Defensive Rookie-of-the-Year in 1979.

Donnie Craft

*Oilers Running Back (1982-83)
1959-1999*

A 12th-round draft pick by the Oilers in 1982 out of the University of Louisville, Craft played in 24 games over two seasons for Houston, rushing for 189 yards on 73 carries with three touchdowns. He also posted 35 receptions for 329 yards and one touchdown.

TENNESSEE TITANS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.

Nancy Adams

Susie Adams Smith

K.S. "BUD" ADAMS, JR.

Owner/
Chairman of the Board

A native of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, K. S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s interest in sports was first displayed while at Culver Military Academy where he earned letters in football, basketball and baseball. Upon graduation from Culver, Adams attended Menlo College (California), lettering in both rugby and football. Adams then transferred to the engineering school at the University of Kansas where he also lettered in football for the Jayhawks. During his days at KU, Adams began his loyal affiliation with Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Adams served in the U.S. Naval Reserve during World War II and was stationed aboard a PAC-Fleet carrier unit where he served as an aviation engineering officer. Prior to his discharge in 1946, Lt. jg. Adams served as an aide in the U.S. Navy's Congressional Liaison Office in Washington, D.C.

Tennessee Governor Don Sundquist shakes hands with Titans Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., following the team's logo unveiling in December, 1998.

Truly "a man for all seasons," Adams parlayed a 1946 chance stop in Houston, resulting from fog which grounded his plane, into a highly-successful and diversified business empire which ranks him among the prominent businessmen in the country.

Adams incorporated ADA Oil Company, which was a forerunner of the publicly-held American Stock Exchange-listed Adams Resources & Energy, Inc. (AE), an energy company engaged in the business of oil and gas exploration and production, crude oil and petroleum products marketing, and tank truck transportation of petroleum products and liquid chemicals. Adams' other business interests include extensive farming and ranching in California and Texas, cattle feeding, real estate, automobile dealerships and leasing, a travel agency, western art, and Indian artifacts.

During his early business career, Adams, a year-round sports fan, was an avid sponsor of amateur and AAU teams in basketball and softball. His ADA Oilers were a perennial power in the National Industrial Basketball League in the '50s, capturing third place in the national AAU tournament in 1956. His interest in sports has been further manifested by past ownership participation in professional baseball, basketball and boxing.

Adams made football history on August 3, 1959, when he, as the owner of the Houston Oilers, helped co-found the American Football League along with Lamar Hunt of the Dallas Texans (now Kansas City Chiefs). In fact, these two pioneers and Ralph Wilson of the Buffalo Bills are the only original team owners left in the NFL, with the exception of the recent NFL expansion teams in Carolina, Jacksonville and Cleveland.

In a career spanning four decades as founder, owner, chairman and president of the Oilers, the hard-working and aggressive Adams has made professional football history numerous times during his regime. In 1968, Adams' Oilers became the first NFL team to play their home games indoors by moving into Houston's Astrodome. In 1997, Adams led the National Football League into the Mid-South region, the last untapped area without a major professional sport. That feat allowed his team to be the first NFL franchise to call "the Volunteer State" home.

Adams' club spent two seasons as the Oilers in Tennessee, and 1999 marks the inaugural season as the Titans. To honor the Tennessee fans for their tremendous support and to reflect the move to Nashville, Adams announced on July 29, 1998, that the Oilers' name would be changed in 1999. The Oilers' name was retired by the NFL--a first in league history, allowing the Tennessee franchise to retain the team's winning tradition and launch the dawn of a new era in the Mid-South. The connections to the club's past remain strong, and these links will guide the team into the next century.

Immediate excitement filled the state when the Oilers initially moved to Tennessee, but fans were even more excited when the club officially became the Tennessee Titans in February, 1999. The team's new identity and uniforms were created, under the direction of Adams, by NFL Properties. A long-time Texan, Adams sought input from numerous focus groups held in Memphis, Knoxville, Chattanooga and Nashville. The focus groups and several team players helped shape the process and inspire the designs. The uniforms, which feature the team's secondary logo on the sleeve, completed the transition. They also show an innovative new look for the NFL, making a bold statement which the team hopes to mimic on the field.

In Greek Mythology, Titans were men of strength and power. The Titan, Prometheus, brought fire to man; and the Titans of today hope to bring fire to the football fans in the Mid-South this season.

Stability is the word to describe Adams' proud franchise in 1999. The Titans will move into a new, permanent home, their fourth and final home venue in the last four seasons. The 67,000 seat stadium sits along the east bank of the Cumberland River, overlooking downtown Nashville. The Oilers played the 1996 season at the Houston Astrodome, the 1997 season at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, and the 1998 season at Vanderbilt Stadium. In August, 1999, the Titans will move from their temporary facility in Bellevue into a state-of-the-art training facility located at MetroCenter.

A team rich in tradition and pride, the Oilers were the dominant team in the American Football League during its 10-year era (1960-69), playing in the championship game four times (1960, 1961, 1962, 1967)-- and winning twice consecutively (1960-61); earning four AFL Eastern Division Championships (1960, 1961, 1962 and 1967), and making the playoffs in 1967, 1969, 1978, 1979, 1980, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1993. In fact, the Oilers' streak of seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93) was the longest streak in the NFL during that time span. The Oilers captured their first AFC Central Division Championship in 1991 and their second in 1993.

During Adams' illustrious career, forty-nine of his players have been Pro Bowl selections, including an AFL and NFL Most Valuable Player. Also, four of Adams' players have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Last fall, Adams named Dennis Bottorff (left) chairman of the team's advisory council, which contributed ideas and input on the club's new name.

NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue (left) checks out progress on the new stadium with Adams, who announced in a press conference Nov. 14, 1998, the Oilers would be called the Tennessee Titans beginning in 1999.

the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. In Tennessee, he is on the Board of Directors of the Middle Tennessee Council of the Boy Scouts of America, a member of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce and a member of the 100 Club of Nashville.

Adams has received numerous awards through the years. In 1997, he was honored by Sigma Chi Fraternity with a formal portrait and bust presentation on permanent display in the foyer and museum of their Evanston, Illinois, headquarters. He was inducted into Culver Academy's Athletic Hall of Fame in the inaugural class in May 1994. In June 1991, he was given the Order of Constantine from Sigma Chi, the highest honor that fraternity can bestow. In February 1990, he was given Sigma Chi Foundation's Semi-Centennial Award. In January 1988, he received the prestigious "Golden Buckle Award" from the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, symbolizing "outstanding promotion of Houston as a premier destination." In addition, in October 1987, Adams was recognized with the Distinguished American Award, presented jointly by the Houston

Chapter of the National Football Hall of Fame and the Houston Athletic Committee (Chamber of Commerce). Other noteworthy honors bestowed upon Adams in the past have included: 1983 "King Capon" from Bill Williams' annual Capon Charity Dinner, Inc.; Culver Military Academy's 1981 "Man of the Year;" Financial World Magazine's 1981 "Outstanding Chief Executive Officer;" 1980 "Distinguished Alumnus" from the California Community and Junior College Association; 1969 "Westerner of the Year" from the Houston Farm and Ranch Club; 1963 "Significant Sig" from Sigma Chi Fraternity; 1961 "Mr. Sportsman" from the Interfaith Charity Group; and 1960 "Houston Salesman of the Year" from the Houston Sales Association.

Adams and his wife Nancy celebrated their 50-year wedding anniversary in October 1996. They have two daughters: Susie and Amy, and seven grandchildren. Their son Kenneth S. Adams III is deceased.

Nashville Mayor Phil Bredeesen joins Adams at the Titans' uniform unveiling ing last April.

MR. AND MRS. ADAMS CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS

With an eye toward the community, Bud and Nancy Adams have donated more than $4 million since 1986 to support a diverse group of charities. That effort has continued in Tennessee.

The private side of Bud Adams is reflected in his charitable and philanthropic activities which are often anonymous. In spring 1999, Adams established a statewide art contest that spotlighted the importance of art in education and added some Tennessee artistic flair to the new NFL Stadium. The contest, which was open to high school students, selected 150 winning entries that will hang in the new stadium. One winner in each grade won $1,000, with runners-up receiving $750 each. Adams did not leave out the junior high students. The Titans' owner will reward sixth, seventh and eighth graders for their hard work by donating 3,500 pairs of tickets to the historic first game at the new stadium to Middle Tennessee middle schools. He showed his appreciation to all of the men and women who worked on both the new stadium and practice facility by presenting a pair of tickets for the first game at the new stadium to each worker. Adams donated football equipment to Tennessee State University's football team, which will share the new stadium with the Titans. Adams purchased over 500 copies of Tennessee Titans Advisory Board of Directors member Wilma Dykeman's book titled "Tennessee: A History" to be used in seventh grade history classes at public schools across the state.

In 1999, Adams and wife Nancy created the K. S. "Bud" and Nancy N. Adams Tennessee Titans Foundation which will serve only the interests and people of Tennessee. The Foundation will offer financial support and other resources to non-profit organizations which will enrich and strengthen communities throughout the Volunteer State. Since 1986, Adams has generously donated more than $4-million to support a diverse group of charities.

In 1998, Adams teamed with NFL Charities to provide $200,000 for disaster relief and to help repair damage to schools caused by two tornadoes that unexpectedly struck East Nashville. The Titans assisted the tornado-damaged Clarksville area in February 1999, and have provided support and contributions to a wide variety of state and local charities in Nashville including Vanderbilt Children's Hospital, W.O. Smith School of Music, Salvation Army Red Shield Project, Nashville Symphony, United Way of Nashville, Nashville Ballet and Junior League of Nashville's "Our Kids" Program. Adams' direct contributions to organizations in the Volunteer State total well over $750,000.

Adams also spearheaded the drive for the construction and operation of the original Houston Ronald McDonald House. His team's galas, which were held biannually between 1978-94, raised more than $3.5-million dollars to support, operate and provide the permanent endowment of the Ronald McDonald House.

K.S. "BUD" ADAMS, JR.

THOMAS S. SMITH

Executive Assistant to the Owner/
Chairman of the Board

A native of Houston, Thomas S. Smith is a graduate of the University of Texas with a B.B.A. in Finance. He worked in banking after graduating and prior to joining KSA Industries in 1974.

He currently serves as the Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of KSA Industries, the family holding company. In addition to that post, Smith is the Executive Assistant to K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. for the Titans' organization and his responsibilities include serving as a liaison in the club's day-to-day operations for Adams. Smith is on the Board of Directors of Adams Resources and Energy, Inc. and attends all NFL owners' meetings with Adams. In addition to his responsibilities with the Titans, he is involved with all of KSA Industries' subsidiary companies and industries, which range from oil and gas to automobile dealerships, farming and ranching interests, and real estate ventures.

Since 1997, Smith has been in charge of overseeing every aspect of the club's relocation process, and has continued to work closely with HOK, the Kansas City-based architecture and engineering firm, in the planning and development of the new downtown stadium on the Cumberland River in Nashville. He also guided the development of the temporary practice site in Bellevue, in addition to the permanent facility to be located at MetroCenter.

Among his other activities, Smith is a past president and currently on the Board of Directors of the Houston Ronald McDonald House. He recently helped oversee the planning and architectural design for a bigger and better Ronald McDonald House in Houston. The $10-million project was completed in September 1997. Smith is on the Board of Trustees of the Kinkaid School Endowment Fund, and he also served on the Board of Directors of the Red Cross and the Post Oak YMCA, and in the past worked closely with the Post Oak Little League. In addition, he is a past chairman of the Steering Committee for the Texas Children's Hospital Development Council. Previously, Smith was chapter chairman and a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for the March of Dimes and served more than 10 years in various capacities for the March of Dimes. In 1986, Smith was the recipient of the Freedom Foundation Certificate of Merit, an annual award presented by a national committee to those who best exemplify citizenship, community awareness and are actively involved in their communities.

Tommy and his wife, Susie, are parents of son, Stuart, and daughter, Nancy.

CLASH OF THE TITANS

The New York Jets spent their first three AFL campaigns as the New York Titans, before a new ownership group opted to change the name. The Oilers owned a 6-0 record against the Titans, outscoring New York by an average of 26 points. The name change worked for the Jets, who beat Houston 24-17 at the Polo Grounds in their first encounter of 1963.

FLOYD REESE

Executive Vice-President/
General Manager

Floyd Reese, who has spent almost a quarter of a century in the NFL, enters his sixth season as the Oilers-Titans' Executive Vice-President/General Manager. He has overseen a dramatic transformation from the club he inherited in 1994 to the club he will put on the field in 1999. He now sends a team to camp that consists of 34 draft selections from the last five drafts, including all five first-rounders. Overall, the Titans will enter the 1999 season with 41 players that were obtained through the draft during Reese's tenure as General Manager, a remarkable feat in this day of free agency movement.

Currently, the Titans have 14 unrestricted free agents on the roster that were signed by Reese. Eyebrows were raised last year when the Oilers signed free-agent punter Craig Hentrich to a big contract during the 1998 off-season. Hentrich went on to earn All-Pro honors and his first Pro Bowl invitation after a banner season. Reese continued to fill holes this season through free agency by inking deals with fullback Lorenzo Neal from Tampa Bay, defensive tackle Jason Fisk from Minnesota, and defensive end Mike Jones from St. Louis. He also re-signed legendary offensive lineman Bruce Matthews.

Reese landed one of the top players in the 1999 NFL draft in Florida LB Jevon Kearse.

Reese is responsible for all aspects of the Titans' football operations, including player personnel, scouting and contract negotiations. He joined the Oilers in 1986, serving as linebackers coach for four seasons before shifting to the front office in 1990 as the club's Assistant General Manager. Four seasons later, Reese was promoted to General Manager. During his tenure as General Manager, all first-round draft picks have been signed and in training camp by reporting day.

Reese aided in the selection of head coach Jeff Fisher and his coaching staff, and coordinated all aspects of the team's National Football League draft and free agency.

A former All-America linebacker at UCLA (1966-69), Reese played one season with the Montreal Alouettes in the Canadian Football League before jumping into the coaching ranks. He began his coaching career at Liberty Union High in Brentwood, Calif., before returning to his alma mater in Westwood as an assistant coach in 1971. Reese spent three seasons at UCLA before moving to Georgia Tech in 1974.

Reese broke into pro football coaching in 1975, serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Detroit Lions. Reese then joined the San Francisco 49ers for one season (1978), before being added to Bud Grant's staff as linebackers and special teams coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 1979. He served that role until 1984, when he was elevated to Defensive Coordinator under then-Head Coach Les Steckel. He tutored the linebackers for one season prior to joining the Oilers.

Floyd and his wife Sally have two sons: Jeremy (age 22) and Sean (age 19).

DON MacLACHLAN

Executive Vice-President

Don MacLachlan is in his ninth season with the Oilers-Titans and his second as Executive Vice-President. MacLachlan is responsible for overseeing all non-football operations for the Tennessee Titans.

Since arriving in Nashville, he has played an aggressive role in securing team sponsorships and corporate relationships, while interfacing with the Titans' broadcasting partners. He has spearheaded excitement surrounding the team, building a fun and festive experience for fans at home games, and worked hard to link the organization with the greater Nashville community. MacLachlan is also a member of the Nashville Sports Council Board of Directors.

The Detroit native started his tenure with the then-Houston Oilers in March 1991, as Vice President of Marketing and Broadcasting. He was elevated to Senior Vice President in 1994 and was promoted to Executive Vice President of Marketing, Broadcasting and Ticketing in 1997. MacLachlan oversaw marketing, media, community relations, and the ticket office while in Houston. He also served as the liaison between both the radio and television rightsholders. MacLachlan administered operations in both Memphis and Nashville during the club's first season in Tennessee in 1997.

MacLachlan joined the Oilers after spending 13 years in the athletic department at Northwestern University in Chicago. He first served as both Assistant Sports Information Director and Golf Coach in 1978. In 1981, MacLachlan was named Athletic Ticket Manager, and he was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 1985. MacLachlan was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 1988 and remained in that role until joining the Oilers.

A 1978 graduate of the University of Michigan, Don and his wife Kathy are parents of two daughters: Shannon (10) and Kelly (5).

MacLachlan has taken an active role in bringing the Titans and the Nashville community together.

STEVE UNDERWOOD

Vice-President/
General Counsel

Steve Underwood is in his ninth season as the Oilers-Titans' Vice-President/General Counsel. The Baytown, Texas native handles a myriad of legal functions, including involvement in the salary cap and player contracts, stadium contracts, promotional and corporate agreements, and litigation. He also serves as General Counsel for KSA Industries, Titans' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s private holding company.

Over the last four years, Underwood was heavily involved in issues related to the franchise's relocation to Tennessee, including involvement as one of the Titans' principal negotiators with local governments in Nashville, Memphis and Houston. Underwood also headed the club's lease negotiations with Vanderbilt University, the Liberty Bowl, and Tennessee State University.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Underwood was an attorney for the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst since 1977. For his entire tenure there, Underwood served as the Oilers' primary counsel. Underwood also served as a part-time business law/real estate instructor at Bayton Lee College from 1980-81, and at San Jacinto Junior College from 1981-85.

Underwood is a frequent speaker and lecturer on sports law topics at State Bar functions, law schools and seminars. Underwood also is a member of the Houston Bar Association, licensed attorney in the U.S. Federal Court system, and member of the Entertainment and Sports Law Section of the State Bar of Texas. In 1990, Underwood was issued a special citation by a student society at Texas Southern University's College of Law for his "educational contribution to the college."

A native of Baytown, Texas, Underwood received his B.J. degree from the University of Texas and his law degree from the University of Houston. From 1974-76, while a law student, he was a legislative aide in the Texas State Legislature. He also is a member of the State Bar's Labor and Employment Section and serves on a joint committee of the NFLMC and NFLPA which studies workers compensation. He is involved in a variety of labor matters for the Club which relate to collective bargaining matters.

Steve has five children, including daughters, Christy (25), Melissa (19), Providence (4) and Liberty (2), and son, Dennis (7). Steve and his wife Frances reside in Rosharon, Texas.

PERFECT IN THE GREEN ZONE

In 1998, Tennessee was the only team in the NFL that scored on every possession inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In 42 trips, the Oilers scored 19 touchdowns and booted 23 field goals.

BOB HYDE
Vice-President/
Community Affairs

Bob Hyde is in his 11th season with the Oilers-Titans and second as Vice-President/Community Affairs. Hyde returned to the Oilers in March of 1998 in his current position.

A native of Tullahoma, Tenn., Hyde was a member of the team's media relations department from 1977-85. His career with the Oilers began as a University of Houston intern in 1977 and in the spring of 1978, he was named Assistant Public Relations Director.

Hyde was promoted to Media Relations Director in 1980 and served the Oilers in that capacity through the end of the 1985 season. He returned home to Tennessee in the spring of 1986, and for five years was an account executive with Nashville's Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence Public Relations agency.

Football once again lured Hyde to Texas in 1991, when he was named Director of Public Relations for the San Antonio Riders of the NFL's World League of American Football. When the NFL suspended operations of that league in 1992, Hyde joined the PGA TOUR as a media official and was employed by the TOUR until he accepted his current position with the Titans.

Last season, Hyde served as the club's liaison between Mr. Adams and the advisory council. The information gathered by the advisory council and from focus groups that included hundreds of fans from across the state, aided Adams in giving the Titans a new name, logo and uniform.

A graduate of Tullahoma (TN) High School, Hyde attended Middle Tennessee State University before transferring to the University of Houston. The 49-year-old Hyde is single and has two daughters, Ashley (14) and Hannah (8). He resides in Brentwood, Tenn.

TITANS CARAVAN

This past spring, the Titans launched the first "Titans Caravan," visiting nearly 60 cities in four states over a two-month period. Jeff Fisher and numerous players, including RB Eddie George and QB Steve McNair, joined members of the Titans' front office and the Titans Radio Network on caravan stops. The Titans Caravan gave fans the opportunity to obtain autographs and take photos with their favorite players and coaches. They touched many people along the way, connecting with Titans fans in Tennessee and across the region.

JACKIE CURLEY

Vice-President/
Finance

In the spring of 1997, Jackie Curley was named to the position of Vice-President/Finance for the Oilers-Titans. Curley's responsibilities include financial reporting, budgeting, internal controls and cash management for the NFL franchise. Additionally, Curley works closely with the General Manager and General Counsel regarding salary cap issues and manages the player insurance program.

Prior to assuming her expanded role, Curley served as the Oilers' Controller for three years (1994-96). She was offered that position after completing her M.B.A. from Rice University while working full-time serving as Tax Manager for Titans' owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr.'s KSA Industries, Inc.

Before joining KSA Industries, Curley worked from 1985-89 as a Tax Supervisor in the Houston office of the accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand. Her clients while at Coopers & Lybrand were mainly high net worth individuals, including several prominent Houston families.

Born in Annapolis, Md., she grew up in Denver, Colo., graduating from the University of Denver with a BSBA, concentration in accounting, in 1983. She is single and resides in Houston.

THE NAME GAME

Since the Houston Oilers debuted on the professional sports scene in 1960, 11 other current franchises have changed their nickname in the four major leagues. Most were prompted by a relocation. Here's a look:

TENNESSEE TITANS ADVISORY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

In order to help Tennessee football fans form their own identity, Titans owner Bud Adams assembled an Advisory Council of leading Tennesseans last September to consult him on a new name and logo. Adams changed the name to reflect the move to Nashville and honor Tennessee fans for their tremendous support. After the new logo was announced, Adams decided to form the Tennessee Titans Advisory Board of Directors to continue in providing a wide range of perspectives from the community and state. The information gathered by the advisory council and with focus groups that included hundreds of fans from across the state aided Adams in giving the Titans a new name, logo and uniform that they would embrace.

"When I formed the Advisory Council, I was looking for individuals who were familiar with the history, traditions, roots and values of the people of Tennessee," said Adams. "This council played a critical role in bringing the perspectives of Tennesseans throughout the state to the evaluation of possible names."

A total of 11 Tennesseans – ranging from a historian to a university president – have agreed to serve on the Titans' Advisory Board of Directors.

JEFF FISHER

Head Coach

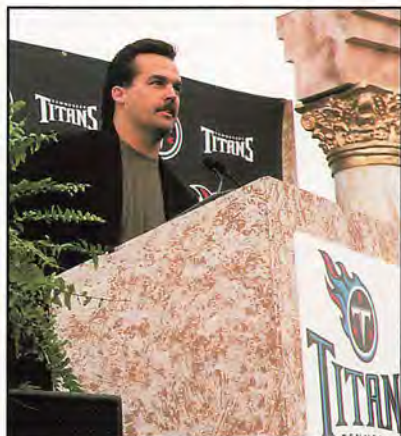

One of the top defensive minds in the NFL, Jeff Fisher has built a reputation through the years for his detailed organization and game planning while displaying a strong commitment to winning. Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. rewarded Fisher's commitment by giving him an unprecedented two-year extension through the 2000 season. The historic move marked the first time in franchise history that Adams extended a contract prior to its original completion.

Fisher officially became the franchise's head coach on January, 5, 1995. Under his reign, the Oilers were a team in transition, but they improved every season despite several off-field distractions.

Over the last four-and-a-half seasons, the Oilers improved from 2-14 in 1994 to 7-9 in 1995, then 8-8 in the last three seasons. The club flirted with a playoff berth in each of the past two seasons. Fisher and his team persevered through all of the challenges of being a relocated franchise.

The 1998 season was one of many milestones for Fisher and the Oilers. Last year, Fisher guided the team to sweep three AFC Central Division foes en route to a club-best 7-1 division record. Despite drawing the league's toughest road schedule in 1998, Fisher and the Oilers won five games away from home. These road warriors handed Pittsburgh, Tampa Bay and Jacksonville their first home losses of the 1998 season. The Oilers' 41-31 win at Pittsburgh was the club's first win at Three Rivers Stadium in five seasons and marked the most points scored in the annual series between these division rivals.

The Oilers ended the 1998 season at 8-8 for the third consecutive season and placed second in the AFC Central Division. It marked the club's highest finish since 1993. Five of the Oilers' eight losses were by eight points or less.

Head Coach Jeff Fisher has high goals in sight for the Titans in 1999.

Fisher originally joined the Oilers' coaching staff on February 9, 1994 after spending two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers. Fisher was a perfect fit for the Oilers, who were looking for a young, aggressive coach with experience in the "46" defense. Fisher had worked with the "46" for many years with former Oilers Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan. Fisher took over a defense that achieved dominant status in 1993, but had lost several key components to free agency.

A former defensive back in college at the University of Southern California, Fisher played for John Robinson in a star-studded defensive backfield that included future NFL stars Ronnie Lott, Dennis Smith and Joey Browner. Current Titans center Bruce Matthews also was one of Fisher's USC teammates. Fisher's career statistics included five interceptions and 108 tackles. The versatile Fisher also served as the Trojans' back-up placekicker and earned Pacific-10 All-Academic honors in 1980.

Originally a seventh-round draft selection of the Chicago Bears in 1981, Fisher appeared in 49 games as a defensive back and return specialist in five seasons. He earned a Super Bowl ring after Chicago's 1985 Super Bowl season, despite spending the year on injured reserve with an ankle injury that prematurely ended his playing career. During that season, Fisher began his post-playing career by assisting Ryan as an "unofficial" coach while the Bears ultimately defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XX. He left Chicago in 1985 holding a number of team records including: number of punt return yards for a season with 509 yards in 1981, number of punt returns in a season with 58 in 1984, and number of punt returns in one game with eight on December 16, 1984, at Detroit. He also recorded the longest punt return by a Bear in 39 years with an 88-yard return for a touchdown on September 20, 1981 against Tampa Bay.

Fisher began his coaching career as an assistant for Ryan and the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986, tutoring the defensive backs for three seasons before becoming the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator in 1988. One year later, under Fisher's tutelage, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in interceptions (30) and quarterback sacks (62). In 1990, Philadelphia's defense paced the league in rushing defense and ranked second in quarterback sacks.

In 1991, Fisher headed west to be reunited with his college coach Robinson, serving as the Los Angeles Rams' defensive coordinator before joining the 49ers one year later.

A native of Culver City, Calif., Fisher was a high school All-America wide receiver for the Toreadors of Taft High School in Woodland Hills, Calif. Fisher is an avid golfer and fisherman. He also does considerable work off the field that does not receive much attention. For the second consecutive year, Fisher and his assistants ran a two-day coaches' clinic for more than 200 high school coaches. He generously donates time and money to different charities.

Jeff and his wife, Juli, a former Rose Bowl Princess, have three children: sons Brandon (age 12) and Trenton (age 7), and daughter Tara (age 9).

LES STECKEL • OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Les Steckel is in his third season as the Oilers-Titans' offensive coordinator. Steckel, who is the only offensive coordinator in the NFL to coach every position on offense, was promoted to the position of offensive coordinator in 1997. The Northampton, Pa., native joined the Oilers in 1995 as wide receivers coach. Last season, the Oilers became the only team in the NFL's 79-year history to score on every possession inside the 20 since the statistic has been tracked. The offense also registered a franchise-low 10 interceptions, improving on the record of 13 set in 1997.

Steckel began his coaching career at the University of Colorado, first as a graduate assistant with the defense in 1972 before coaching tight ends and wide receivers for four seasons (1973-76). In 1977, he worked with the offensive line at the U.S. Naval Academy before accepting his first NFL coaching job with the San Francisco 49ers, where he coached the tight ends and wide receivers. A year later, Les joined Bud Grant's staff at Minnesota, coaching the Vikings' receivers and special teams for five seasons (1979-83). In 1984, at 37 years of age, Steckel was named the Vikings head coach. Steckel coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers for the New England Patriots in their first Super Bowl appearance in 1985. He later served as the Patriots' passing game coordinator before returning to the college ranks in 1989, serving as the offensive coordinator at Brown University. Steckel rejoined the University of Colorado in 1991 and was named offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1992. He coached the tight ends with the Denver Broncos from 1993-1994 prior to joining the Oilers.

A decorated Vietnam veteran as an infantry officer, Steckel is presently a Colonel in the United States Marine Corps Reserve, totaling 30 years of military service. Born (7/1/46), Steckel is happily married to his wife Chris and they have three children, daughter Lesley (18), and sons Christian (21) and Luke (14).

GREGG WILLIAMS • DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Gregg Williams is in his third season as the Oilers-Titans' defensive coordinator. Williams, whose talent and work ethic has allowed him to work his way up from quality control coach in 1990 to his current position in 1997, led a unit that ranked sixth in the AFC against the run last season.

Williams' primary responsibility is the continued implementation and further development of the "46" hybrid. Williams spent three seasons (1994-96) overseeing the Oilers' linebackers after spending the 1993 campaign as the team's special teams coach. Despite suffering injuries to starter Al Smith and the free agency loss of starter Eddie Robinson, Williams' unit played a key role in the Oilers' continued success on the defensive side of the ball in 1996. He also aided in the development of young talent, including Joe Bowden, Terry Killens, Barron Wortham and Pro Bowler Smith. In 1993, Williams' special teams unit showed a renewed aggressiveness, as the Oilers had the top-rated punting game and rated sixth in kickoff return defense. From 1990-92, Williams served as the club's first quality control coordinator. In addition, Williams had previously assisted in the coaching of the Oilers' defensive backs, assisted the "scout" teams for Oiler practice sessions and helped the defensive coaching staff on game day.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Williams spent the 1988-89 seasons working with the linebackers as a graduate assistant at the University of Houston for former Oilers Head Coach Jack Pardee. From 1984-87, Williams was the head coach at Belton (MO) High School after spending the 1980-83 campaigns as an assistant coach at his hometown of Excelsior Springs (MO) High School.

A native of Excelsior Springs, Mo. (7/15/58), Williams played football (quarterback) and baseball at Northeast Missouri State where he received his B.S. degree. He later earned his master's in education from Central Missouri State. Gregg and his wife, Leigh Ann, have two sons, Blake (14) and Chase (7), and a daughter, Amy (9).

GEORGE HENSHAW • ASST. HEAD COACH/RUNNING GAME

George Henshaw is in his third season with the Oilers-Titans and first as Assistant Head Coach/Running Game. He was elevated to his current position in May after spending the last two seasons as tight ends coach. Henshaw is responsible for game-planning the team's ground attack as well as coaching the tight ends. Last season, TE Frank Wycheck established career highs in receptions (70) and receiving yards (768) to lead all tight ends in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl invitation.

Henshaw joined the Oilers in 1997 after serving as the offensive coordinator of the New York Giants for four seasons (1993-96). During his tenure with the Giants, the team boasted one of the best running games in the National Football League, including a league-high average of 138.1 yards per game in 1993.

Before joining the Giants, Henshaw spent five years (1988-92) with the Denver Broncos, including a stint as the team's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 1992. Prior to that position, Henshaw coached Denver's wide receivers in 1991, and the Broncos offensive line from 1988-90. During that period, the Broncos won two AFC West titles and appeared in Super Bowl XXIV. Prior to joining the Broncos, Henshaw was the head coach at the University of Tulsa for one season. After leading the Golden Hurricanes for the 1987 season, he joined the Broncos.

Henshaw began his coaching career at his alma mater, West Virginia, (1970-75) before moving on to Florida State University. He spent seven years (1976-82) as both an offensive and defensive line coach for the Seminoles, including four years (1979-82) as offensive coordinator. From 1983-86, Henshaw served as the offensive coordinator as well as the offensive line coach for the University of Alabama, which led the SEC in total offense (424.1 yards per game).

A native of Midlothian, Va. (1/22/48), Henshaw is a 1970 graduate of West Virginia University. He and his wife, Kathleen (6/26/71), have three children: Michael (18), Matthew (16) and Kerry (13).

BART ANDRUS • QUARTERBACKS

Bart Andrus is in his third season with the Oilers-Titans and first as quarterbacks coach. Andrus joined Jeff Fisher's coaching staff in 1997 as offensive assistant/quality control coach.

Prior to joining the Oilers, Andrus spent one season as the head coach at Rocky Mountain College and earned 1996 NAIA Coach-of-the-Year honors. Andrus was rewarded for taking over a program that hadn't won a game in four years and guiding them to a 6-4 mark. Included in that was an offensive unit that ranked first nationally with averages of 505 yards per game and 39.6 points per game.

Before taking over at Rocky Mountain, Andrus had served as the offensive coordinator at Southern Utah University (1993-95), Montana State (1990-91) and Humboldt State (1986-89).

Andrus began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Brigham Young University in 1984, after spending three years (1981-83) as head coach at St. Patrick High School in Vallejo, Calif.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif. (3/30/58), Andrus graduated from the University of Montana, where he played quarterback from 1978-81. He and his wife, Karen, have two children, daughter Brooke (11) and son Travis (8).

O'NEILL GILBERT • LINEBACKERS

O'Neill Gilbert is in his third year as Oilers-Titans linebackers coach. Last season, Joe Bowden posted a career-high 145 tackles after moving from outside to middle linebacker.

Gilbert joined the Titans' staff after a two-year stint as linebackers coach at the University of Illinois. He replaced Gregg Williams, who was promoted to defensive coordinator. Gilbert is responsible for developing a unit that has long been considered the core of the Oilers defense.

While with the Fighting Illini, Gilbert helped develop one of the nation's most feared duos, Kevin Hardy (now with Jacksonville) and Simeon Rice (now with Arizona). Hardy was awarded the Butkus Award, symbolic of the nation's top collegiate linebacker, while Rice was a finalist for the Butkus and Lombardi Awards, and was responsible for establishing the Big Ten sack mark while under Gilbert's tutelage.

Prior to joining the University of Illinois, Gilbert spent three seasons (1992-94) as an assistant coach at Nevada-Las Vegas, where he helped develop the Rebels' defense into one of the nation's leaders in quarterback sacks. He also helped in the development of UNLV standout Mark Byers, who led the nation in sacks in 1994.

Gilbert began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Texas A&M (1990), before becoming the defensive line/outside linebackers coach at Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas prior to the 1991 season.

Gilbert was a three-year starter at Texas A&M, playing on three consecutive Southwest Conference Championship teams and appearing in three Cotton Bowls. The Aggies compiled a 36-12 mark during those three seasons.

A native of Monroe, La. (3/29/65), Gilbert earned his bachelor's degree in industrial technology from Texas A&M in 1989. He and his wife, Tammy have one daughter, Carrington (9).

JERRY GRAY • DEFENSIVE BACKS

Former All-Pro cornerback Jerry Gray is in his third season as an NFL coach and first as the Titans defensive backs coach. He began his NFL coaching career in 1997 when he re-joined the Oilers organization as defensive assistant/quality control coach. Gray joined the Oilers coaching staff after spending two seasons as defensive backs coach (1995-96) at Southern Methodist University.

Prior to his first coaching stint, Gray spent nine seasons in the National Football League, playing for the Los Angeles Rams (1985-91), Oilers (1992), and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993) before retiring. He was a four-time Pro Bowler at cornerback (1986-89) with the Rams. He also was named the NFL's defensive back of the year twice (1989-90), and earned MVP honors in the 1990 Pro Bowl.

A two-time consensus All-America and two-time Southwest Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year as a safety at the University of Texas (1983-84), Gray was a first-round draft choice of the Los Angeles Rams in 1985 (21st overall). He played in 104 games for the Rams, registering 22 interceptions, including a career-best eight thefts in 1986.

Gray's first stint with the Oilers came as a player when he joined the club from the Rams as a "Plan B" free agent in 1992. He started 16 games for the Oilers that season and led the Oilers with six interceptions. He signed as a free agent with the Buccaneers prior to the 1993 season.

A native of Lubbock, Texas (12/16/62), Gray lettered in football, basketball, and track at Estacado High in Lubbock. He also is a member of the University of Texas' All-Time Team and All-Decade Team for the 1980s. In 1995, Gray was inducted in the Texas High School Hall of Fame and was recently named to the All-Time Texas High School Team. He and his wife, Sherry Annette, have one son, Jeremy Donte (8).

ALAN LOWRY • SPECIAL TEAMS

Alan Lowry takes over the Titans' special teams after coaching the club's wide receivers corps for the last two seasons. Lowry brings 11 years of special teams coaching experience from his positions with Dallas (1982-87), Tampa Bay (1991), and San Francisco (1992-95). He joined the Oilers in 1996 as defensive assistant/quality control and was promoted to the position of wide receivers coach one year later.

Lowry spent nine seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (1982-90).

He originally joined the Cowboys in 1982 as their special teams coach before shifting to receivers (1988-90). In 1991, he served as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-95. In San Francisco, Lowry and the Niners made two NFC Championship game appearances and captured a Super Bowl Championship.

A former quarterback and defensive back at the University of Texas, Lowry earned All-Southwest Conference honors before jumping into the coaching ranks. Lowry began his coaching career at Virginia Tech in 1974 before moving to the University of Wyoming in 1975. He spent 1976 as a member of the Dallas Cowboys scouting department before returning to the University of Texas (1977-81) for five seasons as defensive backs coach. JIM SCHWARTZ • DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Jim Schwartz joined the Titans coaching staff last spring as defensive assistant/quality control. Schwartz will be responsible for breaking down film of Titans' opponents and compiling coaching reports on their offensive tendencies. He also will assist Jerry Gray with the secondary.

Schwartz joined the Titans after spending the last three seasons as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Baltimore Ravens. While in Baltimore, Schwartz also coached the Ravens' outside linebackers. He spent three years in the Cleveland Browns' personnel department, assisting in all phases of college scouting. During that time, Schwartz also served as both a college and pro scout with the Browns and assisted the defensive coaching staff with film breakdowns and scouting reports. Schwartz began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Maryland, tutoring the Terrapins' linebackers from 1989-90. He then served as secondary coach at the University of Minnesota (1990-91) and North Carolina Central (1991-92) before moving to Colgate (1992) as linebackers coach.

A native of Baltimore, Md. (6/2/66), Schwartz was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the Hoyas of Georgetown University, where he earned his degree in Economics. He also received Distinguished Economics Graduate honors at Georgetown and earned numerous honors in 1988, including CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America, Division III All-America, NCAA Post Scholar and team captain. Jim and his new wife, Kathleen, reside in Nashville, Tenn.

SHERMAN SMITH • RUNNING BACKS

Former Seattle Seahawks running back Sherman Smith is in his fifth year as the Oilers-Titans' running backs coach. Smith joined the Oilers in 1995, after spending three seasons at the University of Illinois.

At Illinois, Smith served as tight ends coach from 1992-93 and added running backs coach to his title in 1994.

A former standout during his collegiate career at Miami (Ohio) University, Smith coached the running backs at his alma mater for two seasons (1990-91) before moving to Illinois.

After joining the Seahawks as a second-round draft choice in 1976, Smith went on to play nine years in the NFL. Smith led a fledgling Seahawk team in rushing in each of his first four seasons, finishing his Seattle tenure with 3,429 yards and 28 touchdowns on 810 attempts, as well as 210 receptions for 2,445 yards with 10 touchdowns. Smith left Seattle among the all-time rushers in Seahawks' history before closing his NFL playing career with the San Diego Chargers from 1983-84.

As a quarterback at Miami (Ohio), Smith led the Redskins to the Mid-American Conference crown in his final three seasons while compiling a 33-1-1 record.

In 1984, Smith began teaching in the Northwest where he coached and taught at Redmond Junior High before returning to the college level as a coach in 1990.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio (11/1/54), he and his wife, Sharon, have a daughter, Shavonne (19), and a son, Sherman (17).

STEVE WALTERS • WIDE RECEIVERS

Steve Walters, a 28-year veteran of coaching, including 16 in the NFL, joins the Titans as wide receivers coach. Walters spent the last two seasons as wide receivers coach with the New England Patriots. The Patriots boasted the second-best passing offense in the conference last season by averaging nearly 230 passing yards per game.

Walters spent two coaching stints with New England. He began his NFL coaching career with New England in 1992, serving as defensive backs coach for three seasons before serving as wide receivers coach with the New Orleans Saints for 11 seasons (1986-96). During his tenure in New Orleans, his wide receivers set the record for most single-season receptions in franchise history. Walters began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech in 1971. After two seasons, he accepted his first full-time position coaching receivers at Tampa University in 1973. He coached the defensive backs for two seasons (1974-75) at Northeast Louisiana before moving on to Morehead State as the quarterbacks and receivers coach. From 1977-78, Walters served as wide receivers coach at the University of Tulsa. In 1979, he coached quarterbacks at Memphis State before spending two seasons (1980-81) as secondary coach at Southern Methodist University under head coach Ron Meyer. Walters then moved to the NFL with New England after Meyer accepted the Patriots' head coaching position.

A native of Jonesboro, Ark. (6/16/48), Walters played defensive back at the University of Arkansas. He lettered in football, basketball and track at Springdale High in Arkansas. He earned his bachelor's degree at Arkansas and added his master's degree in physical education from Morehead State in 1976. Steve and his wife Susan are parents of two children: Kirk (20) and Kasey (17).

NASHVILLE'S DEBUT

Tennessee made its Nashville debut on Sept. 13 against the San Diego Chargers, marking the third different home field the Oilers played on in three seasons. The club played the 1996 season in Houston (Astrodome) and the '97 campaign in Memphis (Liberty Bowl) before arriving in Nashville.

STEVE WATTERSON • STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

One of the top strength and rehabilitation experts in the NFL, Steve Watterson is in his 14th season as the Oilers-Titans' strength and conditioning coach. In 1999, Steve was appointed to the National Research Council for Health (NRCH) Scientific Advisory Council. The NRCH maintains a highly qualified scientific advisory council comprised of health professionals across the country. NRCH was formed in 1977 to expand the scientific foundation and understanding of natural health science.

In 1992, Watterson received the greatest honor of his career when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Watterson has been instrumental in helping to develop and implement various strength and conditioning programs with the Titans and directs the club's successful off-season conditioning program. Watterson joined the Oilers in 1986 as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator before becoming an assistant coach in those areas prior to the 1988 season.

Before joining the Oilers, Watterson spent two seasons (1984-85) as the assistant trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles. From 1979-80, he served as the head trainer at Tucson (AZ) High School before accepting a similar post at Amphitheater High School in Tucson (1980-84). Watterson's other activities have included serving as a trainer at the 1982 Olympic Development Camp and at the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs in 1983. Following the 1990 season, Watterson received national attention when he personally supervised the rehabilitation of auto racing superstar A.J. Foyt. Foyt credits Steve with his ability to come back from severe leg injuries to race in the 1991 Indianapolis 500. Steve currently advises NASCAR teams on training for proper biomechanics for their pit crews. As a member of the Scientific Advisory Board for AdvoCare Nutrition, Steve also advises Nascar teams such as Richard Petty's on proper supplementation for improved performance.

Watterson has patents pending on shoulder and leg rehabilitation devices and on a leg measuring device through his company, Kelsea Plus Corp. He received his bachelor's degree from Rhode Island and his master's degree from Arizona.

A native of Newport, R.I. (11/27/56), Steve and his wife, Kathryn have two daughters, Kelsea (10) and Bergen (1), and two sons, Brock (4) and Cole (3).

DRESSED FOR SUCCESS

The Tennessee Titans debut new uniforms and helmets for the first time in 24 years in 1999. The 1975 Oilers responded to the uniform change with a 10-4 record after recording a 7-7 mark in 1974. This trend of uniform changes equaling on-field success has continued in the NFL. The last four teams to debut new duds have reached the playoffs that season. Denver changed its uniforms in 1997 and went on to win the Super Bowl after previously going 0-4 in the big game. Tampa Bay also unleashed their new uniforms in 1997 and went on to win a home playoff game against the Detroit Lions. In 1998 the New York Jets earned their first division title in their new uniforms since joining the NFL in 1970. In 1996, the Philadelphia Eagles changed wardrobe and made it into the post-season. The Cincinnati Bengals reached the Super Bowl in 1981 in their new tiger-striped helmets and jerseys. The Titans are hoping for similar success in 1999.

RICH SNEAD • DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Rich Snead is in his sixth year with the Titans and second as Director of Player Personnel. Snead is responsible for evaluating all personnel, college and pro, as well as continuing the evaluation and grading of league personnel, researching free agents, and monitoring waiver and possible trade transactions.

Snead originally came to the Oilers on June 27, 1994, as the club's Director of Pro Personnel. He spent four seasons (1990-93) as a scout for the Los Angeles Raiders and two seasons (1988-89) as a scout for the San Diego Chargers.

Snead began his pro career in 1983 season as a scout for the Oklahoma Outlaws in the United States Football League (USFL). He also served as Director of Player Personnel for the Los Angeles Express from 1984-86.

Snead's coaching experience includes a stint as wide receivers and quarterbacks coach at Santa Ana College from 1979-82. He earned his degree in physical education from Long Beach State University.

A native of San Gabriel, Calif. (11/6/55), Rich and his wife, M'Lissa, have one son, Bill.

GLENN CUMBEE • DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Glenn Cumbee is in his third season as the Titans' Director of College Scouting. He was promoted to his current position in 1997 after serving 12 years scouting the southeast and midwest regions. His new duties include collegiate scouting, scouting evaluation and the evaluation of college football players.

As a collegian, Cumbee attended Baptist College and the University of South Carolina. He then embarked on a successful high school coaching career in South Carolina, first serving as head coach at Paul Knox High School in North Augusta (1970-71) before moving to Ridge Spring-Monetta High School from 1972-73. In 1974, Cumbee began a stint as defensive coordinator at Newberry (SC) College, remaining there until 1978. He coached linebackers at East Tennessee State in 1979 before entering private business for two years. In 1982, Cumbee joined the National Scouting Combine before accepting his current position with the Oilers. A native of Aiken, S.C., Glenn and his wife, Susan, have a daughter, Meredith (20), and reside in Newberry, S.C.

C.O. BROCATO • COLLEGE SCOUT

C.O. Brocato joined the Titans in 1981 for his second tour of duty with the club as a scout. He is responsible for researching all college talent in the central United States. Brocato was recently selected as one of the top 10 scouts in the NFL in a newspaper poll of league general managers.

Following his graduation from Baylor University, Brocato coached in the high school ranks as head coach at Jesuit High School in Shreveport, La.. In 1968, he assumed the title of Defensive Coordinator at Northern Arizona, remaining at the Flagstaff school for three seasons. From 1971-74, he held a similar post at Texas-Arlington before joining the Oilers in a scouting capacity from 1974-76. From 1977-81, Brocato served as a scout for the United States Scouting combine.

Born Oct. 31, 1929, C.O. and his wife, Lucy, have one daughter, Becky. The family resides in Arlington, Texas.

DUB FESPERMAN • COLLEGE SCOUT

The responsibilities of scouting the east coast for the Titans belong to Dub Feserman. He joined the Oilers in 1981 after a successful college coaching and scouting career.

A graduate of Duke University where he played both football and baseball, Feserman began his career as a coach in the North Carolina school system from 1957-60. After that, he accepted a position as defensive line coach at Wake Forest, spending three years working for the Demon Deacons. From 1964-66, Feserman served in the same capacity at Tulane (asst. head coach in 1966) before joining Bobby Dodd's staff at Georgia Tech (1967-68). In 1969, Feserman became defensive coordinator at Massachusetts before accepting a similar post at Dartmouth (1972-74). Feserman joined the CEPO Scouting Combine in 1975 (later merged with United States Scouting Service) before coming to the Oilers.

Born December 21, 1933, Dub and his wife, Marie, have two grown daughters, Anne and Sandra. The family resides in Pinehurst, N.C.

BRAD BROWN • HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Brad Brown is in his 13th season as the head athletic trainer for the Oilers-Titans. Brown joined the Oilers in 1987 after spending two seasons as assistant athletic trainer for the Denver Broncos. Brown was a member of the Broncos' training staff when the team captured the AFC championship and advanced to Super Bowl XXI against the Giants.

Prior to his appointment in Denver, Brown was the head athletic trainer at Fort Hays (KS) State University from 1978-85, while also serving as an instructor in the school's Health and Physical Education Department. He had been a graduate assistant for the Tigers from 1977-78 after working as a student trainer there from 1974-77. In addition, Brown was employed as a student trainer for the Kansas City Chiefs during their 1975-76 training camps.

A native of Norton, Kan. (6/1/55), Brown is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Tennessee Athletic Society. He also is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine and a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society, where he serves as the Secretary. He holds both a B.S. and master's degree from Fort Hays and is an avid jetskier. Brad and his wife, Kristi, have two sons, Kyle (19) and Joel (17).

MARTY COLLINS • DIRECTOR OF TICKET OPERATIONS

Marty Collins is in his second season as the club's Director of Ticket Operations. He is responsible for handling all of the Titans' ticket operations relating to the opening of the new stadium in 1999.

Collins joined the Oilers after spending three seasons (1995-97) as the Assistant Director of Ticket Operations for the St. Louis Rams. During his tenure with the Rams, Collins assisted in coordinating the PSL campaign and ticket operations for two stadiums in 1995 with Busch Stadium and the Trans World Dome.

Collins broke into the league as an intern with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1990. He was hired on full-time in 1991, spending three seasons in the Chiefs' ticket office where they achieved a selling cap for season tickets and developed a waiting list. From 1993-95, Collins served as the Group Sales Manager with the Kansas City Royals before returning to the NFL with St. Louis.

A native of Kansas City (1/25/69), Collins graduated from William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo. He and his wife, Roxanne, reside in Nashville.

JENNEEN DAINWOOD • CONTROLLER

Jenneen Dainwood joined the staff of the Tennessee Titans as Controller in the summer of 1997. Dainwood oversees the accounting of ticket and suite sales, sponsorships and broadcasting revenues, and assists with special projects.

Before joining the Titans, Jenneen was vice-president of Finance and Human Resources for the American Cancer Society. From 1992-95, Jenneen worked for Arthur Anderson LLP as an audit division senior accountant.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn. (10/15/70), Jenneen graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor of business administration from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. She earned her CPA certification in 1994. She is single and resides in Nashville.

BILL DICKERSON • GENERAL MANAGER OF STADIUM FACILITIES

Bill Dickerson is in his first season as General Manager for Facilities Operations for the Titans. Dickerson is responsible for the day-to-day operations of both the MetroCenter practice facility and new downtown stadium, including game-day operations.

Tennessee is Dickerson's second stop in the NFL, as he spent five seasons (1988-92) as the Director of Operations with the Kansas City Chiefs. He joins the Titans after seven years with the Marriott Corporation in Kansas City.

A native of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, Dickerson earned his B.A. in business from Kansas State and M.S. in athletic administration from Wichita State University in 1980.

MEEKA GABRIEL • DIR. OF CHEERLEADING & ENTERTAINMENT

Meeka Gabriel is in her first season as the Titans' Director of Cheerleading and Entertainment. Gabriel will be in charge of assembling and teaching the Spirit and Yell Leaders squad this season, as well as choreographing game day performances. She also will direct the off-field performances by the Cheerleaders in the Nashville community, in addition to selecting and coordinating the new Titans' mascot. Gabriel joins the Titans after spending the last three years as the Director of Choreography for the Universal Dance Association. Gabriel has been associated with the Company Dance Group, which is headed by Paula Abdul, and has directed Disney Parades and New Year's Day parades in both London and Paris. She has also choreographed pregame entertainment for both the Citrus and Outback Bowl games. A native of Memphis, (6/21/68), Gabriel is a graduate of the University of Memphis, where she was a member of the Tigers' award-winning dance team that won four national championships. Upon graduation, Gabriel spent five years dancing professionally in both New York and Los Angeles. Gabriel lives in Nashville with her daughter, Salemah (4).

MIKE KEITH • DIRECTOR OF BROADCASTING

Thirty-one year old Mike Keith will become the first "Voice of the Tennessee Titans" in 1999, becoming the second-youngest play-by-play announcer in the NFL. The Franklin, Tenn. native's voice was actually the first ever associated with Tennessee's NFL team.

In 1996, while the team was still in Houston, Keith hosted a pregame show for Tennessee stations that carried Oilers games. Keith was the network's scoreboard host in 1997 before moving into the booth as a color analyst in 1998.

This season, Keith moves to the play-by-play chair and will also continue to host the weekly Jeff Fisher show, as well as handling many of the daily Titans updates.

On May 26, 1998, Keith joined the Titans full-time as Director of Broadcasting. He came to the Titans after becoming one of Tennessee's most honored sportscasters while working in Knoxville for WIVK/WNOX radio and the Vol Radio Network. At WIVK/WNOX from 1989-98, the AP State Broadcasters five times named Keith's play-by-play work and his daily sports talk show as the best in Tennessee. Among his other awards, Keith won a 1997 RTNDA Edward R. Murrow Award for nationwide excellence in sports reporting.

From 1987-98, Keith was a Vol Radio Network stalwart, working with Vol football, basketball and Lady Vol basketball broadcasts and coaches' shows on radio and television.

Keith is a 1986 graduate of Franklin's Battle Ground Academy and a 1991 graduate of the University of Tennessee (Political Science). He is married to Michelle Johnson Keith and has two children, Abby (4) and Matthew (1).

DON MOSELEY • ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Don Moseley is in his 13th season as the Oilers-Titans' Assistant Athletic Trainer. He joined the Oilers in 1987 after spending two years as the head athletic trainer at Cameron University in Lawton, Okla.

Before his stint at Cameron, Moseley was the head athletic trainer at Central High School in San Angelo, Texas, from 1980-85. Moseley held the same position at Cholla High School in Tucson, Ariz. (1979-80), and was also a student trainer at the University of Oklahoma (1976-78). He is certified by the NATA.

Paul Noska is in his third season as the Oilers-Titans Equipment Manager and 17th overall year with the organization. Nicknamed "Hoss," Noska originally joined the club in 1982 as an equipment assistant and has been a full-time member of the club's equipment department since 1983.

Noska is responsible for the ordering and maintenance of all equipment and playing gear for the Titans throughout the season. He also handles the computer inventory of the team's equipment and assists in the care of the team's practice fields.

A native of Houston, Noska and his wife, Terry, have one son, Randy Paul II (9).

RALPH OCKENFELS • DIRECTOR OF MARKETING

Ralph Ockenfels is in his second season with the Oilers-Titans as the Director of Marketing. He is responsible for developing corporate sponsorship packages and retail promotions. He also is involved with game-day presentations and enhancements during Titans home games.

Prior to joining the Titans, Ockenfels was the Assistant Director of Marketing for the Green Bay Packers from 1992-1998 after joining the team as an intern in 1991. During his tenure in Green Bay, Ockenfels served on the advance team for the Packers in Super Bowls XXXI and XXXII.

A native of Iowa City, Iowa (12/12/66), Ockenfels earned his BA from the University of Northern Iowa and MS from Western Illinois University. Ralph and his wife, Jannette, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

STEVE REESE • DIRECTOR OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Steve Reese is in his 10th season as the Oilers-Titans' Director of Information Systems. Reese is responsible for managing the organization's state-of-the-art computer and telecommunication systems. Steve also consults with many of K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr.'s companies in the automotive, travel and ranching industries.

In 1997, Reese was an originating member and chairman of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee which addresses a variety of league-wide technology issues.

Prior to joining the Titans, Reese was a Manager at Arthur Andersen and Company where he worked in the real estate, environmental and health care industries. He was a founding member of the Business Systems Consulting Practice in Arthur Andersen's Detroit office that provides consulting services to high-growth companies.

A native of Detroit (10/30/60), Reese ran track at Saginaw Valley State College, where he earned All-America honors. He received his B.B.A. from the University of Houston. Steve and his wife, Darleen have two sons, Steven (11) and Matthew (10).

AL SMITH • DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Former All-Pro linebacker Al Smith is in his second season as the Titans' Director of Player Development.

Smith assists the players in continuing their education and helping them in financial and family matters. Last off-season, nine players went back to school to work on their degrees and three others obtained internships with Smith's assistance through corporate affiliations. CB Dainon Sydney earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in June 1999 from the University of Alabama-

Birmingham. Smith and the Titans' organization were awarded the 1998-99 most improved player development program in the NFL.

A 10-year NFL veteran, Smith was a starting middle linebacker for the Houston Oilers, anchoring a defense that made seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93. He ended his playing career in 1996 with 877 tackles in 135 games, including 10 playoff contests, was elected team captain in 1995 and 1996 and earned Pro Bowl invitations following the 1991 and 1992 seasons. Smith was selected by the Oilers from Utah State in the sixth round (147th overall) of the 1987 NFL Draft. A native of Los Angeles, Calif. (11/26/64), Smith starred for the Vikings of St. Benard High in Playa Del Rey, Calif.

KEN SPARACINO • VIDEO DIRECTOR

Ken Sparacino is in his 17th season with the Oilers-Titans and 14th as the team's Video Director. His responsibilities include the handling of all taping and production for the Titans' organization. Sparacino tapes all practices and games and then breaks down those tapes for the coaching staff to study.

Sparacino attended Waltrip High in Houston and Stephen F. Austin State University. He worked part-time for the Oilers from 1983-85 in film production and cinematography.

A native of Houston (6/15/47), Ken and his wife, Marilyn, have one son, Bobby (30), and a daughter, Angela (27).

STUART SPEARS • DIRECTOR OF SALES AND OPERATIONS

Spears primary responsibilities include the administration of the club's sales and advertising efforts and the coordination of all team travel and training camp activities. Spears also is the club's primary liaison with the organization's concession partner in the new stadium, Volume Services.

Spears began his tenure with the Oilers in 1987 in the ticket office. He worked in the ticket department for five years, finishing as the club's Assistant Director of Ticket Administration and Services until 1992, when he assumed the duties of Marketing and Broadcasting Assistant. He was promoted to Sales and Promotions Coordinator in 1995, playing a role in preparing for the team's relocation to Tennessee. He was actively involved in the promotion of luxury suite and personal seat license sales. He also worked on a wide range of operational and political activities. He moved to Tennessee in December of 1995 in order to prepare for the team's arrival in July 1997.

A native of Wilmington, Del., Spears (33), is a graduate of Baylor University with a BA degree in Journalism and Marketing. He and his wife Joyce reside in Franklin with their sons, Wesley (8) and Dustin (4).

BILL WAINWRIGHT • SUITE AND CLUB SERVICES MANAGER

Bill Wainwright enters his ninth season with the Oilers-Titans and first as Suite and Club Services Manager. His primary responsibilities include the overall administration of the stadium's 144 corporate suites and nearly 12,000 club seats. He also serves as the team's principle contact in administering the leasing of the stadium's new 62,000-square foot club lounges. Wainwright entered professional sports as an intern with the Chicago White Sox before joining the Houston Oilers in 1990 as an intern. He started full-time with the Oilers as a marketing assistant in 1991 and was shifted as an Oilers ticket office assistant one year later. A native of Wheaton, IL (12/22/67), Wainwright graduated from DePauw University with a B.A. in Communications in 1990. Wainwright is single and lives in Brentwood.

TONY WYLLIE • DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Tony Wyllie is in his second season as the Oilers-Titans' Director of Media Relations.

Wyllie is responsible for coordinating all football-related media coverage for the team. He is the liaison between the local and national media and the Titans' players, front office and coaches. He also writes the team's press releases, compiles statistics and works in conjunction with the TV networks in the televising of Titans games.

Wyllie joined the club in 1998 after spending four seasons (1994-97) as the assistant director of public relations with the St. Louis

Rams. In 1997, Wyllie and the Rams' Public Relations Department received the coveted Pete Rozelle Award, presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the outstanding NFL club PR staff. He also was selected by the NFL to work the 1996 and 1997 NFC Championship games and the 1999 Pro Bowl in Hawaii.

In June 1995, Wyllie moved to St. Louis with the Rams after joining the club in Los Angeles in June 1994. In 1993, Wyllie served as an intern in the public relations department with the Dallas Cowboys during their Super Bowl Championship season. Wyllie also spent the summer of 1992 as a training camp intern with the San Diego Chargers.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y. (12/31/67), Wyllie grew up in Houston and assisted the sports information department at his alma mater, Texas Southern University. In college, he also worked as a stringer for the Houston Chronicle, Houston Post and The Associated Press. He broke into the league as a game-day intern with the Houston Oilers in 1991. Wyllie resides in Nashville.

TENNESSEE TITANS

Who Were the Titans?

The name "Titans" conjures up qualities from a past that dates back to the time of the earliest Greek myths. For the Greeks, the Titans were the supreme beings – primitive, powerful, massive and terrifying. They were the 12 children of Uranus and Gaea, Heaven and Earth, and their huge size and incredible strength embodied the powers of nature that men instinctively respected and revered. The Titan Atlas was able to bear the weight of the world on his shoulders. The Titan Prometheus was the creator of all humanity. He made men able to think and walk upright, and stole fire from the sun to endow them with a gift that would give them power over all other animals.

The supreme Titan was Cronus, who ruled the entire universe from his golden throne until he was challenged by his son, Zeus. The titanic battle that took place between the Titans, led by Cronus, and the younger gods, led by Zeus and his brothers, was the original Clash of the Titans. It ended in victory for the Olympian gods, who took over the various Titans' roles. Zeus succeeded Cronus as the chief god who wielded the power of lightning and thunderbolts, and the rest of the Titans were exiled to Tartarus, the Greek name for Hell.

Eventually, Zeus was reconciled with the Titans, who continued to be revered as powerful supernatural forces, and Cronus was made ruler of the Golden Age of happiness and prosperity that the Greeks believed would eventually come to earth.

A TRIBUTE TO MIKE HOLOVAK

Mike Holovak, who spent 39 seasons in the National Football League, retired in 1999 as the Oilers' Director of Regional Scouting. Holovak spent 18 years in the Oilers organization, including five as the club's Executive Vice-President/General Manager.

Holovak played collegiately at Boston College from 1940-42, earning All-America honors. He still owns the Orange Bowl record for highest rushing average, gaining 158 yards on just 10 carries in the 1943 Orange Bowl against Alabama.

Holovak played one season for the Los Angeles Rams and two with the Chicago Bears before returning to Boston College as the freshman coach. He assumed the head coaching reins in 1951, compiling a 49-29-3 record in nine seasons. This past fall, Holovak became the first football player in Eagles history to have his jersey retired.

The American Football League was formed in 1959, and the Boston Patriots tabbed Holovak as one of their first employees. Five games into the 1961 season he was named head coach. In the final nine games of that season, Holovak guided the Patriots to a 7-1-

1 record and the AFL Eastern Division title. Holovak added the title of General Manager in 1964 and left New England in 1968 with a record of 52-46-9. He remains the club's all-time winningest coach.

In 1968, Holovak joined the San Francisco 49ers as offensive backfield coach. In 1971, he took a job as receivers coach for the Oakland Raiders. The following season, Holovak was named the offensive backfield coach for the New York Jets. He was later elevated to Director of Scouting before leaving the Jets in 1976.

Holovak returned to the Patriots as a personnel assistant in 1977 before becoming the Director of College Scouting. He joined the Oilers on February 15, 1981 as Assistant General Manager. Holovak later became Director of Player Personnel before earning the title of Executive Vice President/General Manager in 1989. Holovak's five years in that capacity resulted in five playoff trips, two AFC Central Division titles and an overall mark of 52-34. He spent the past five years as Director of Regional Scouting.

During Holovak's tenure as General Manager, the Oilers made an NFL-best seven consecutive playoff appearances from 1987-93.

Holovak has been inducted into the National Collegiate Hall of Fame (1983), the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame (1984) and the State of Pennsylvania Hall of Fame. Holovak is a native of Lansford, Pa.

"(Holovak) always conducted himself with class and dignity, no matter how sticky the situation," John McClain of the Houston Chronicle wrote this past January. "Seldom, if ever, do you find anyone with less ego than Holovak, who was always satisfied to remain in the background and let others take the credit..."

"He deserves to be in the Pro Football Hall of Fame."

Holovak and his wife, Pauline, live in Sarasota, Fla. They have two grown daughters, Michele and Cindy.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1999

The franchise begins its first season known as the "Titans," after 39 seasons (1960-98) as the "Oilers."

The Titans play their first game in their new downtown stadium. It will be the fourth different home field in as many years.

Al Del Greco extending his franchise record of 836 career points. His NFL career point total of 1,360 is 15th on the NFL's all-time scoring list entering 1999 and fourth among active kickers.

Al Del Greco extending his club record of scoring in 76 consecutive games.

Al Del Greco extending his streak of 17 consecutive field goals made, one shy of his club-record 18, entering the 1999 season.

Eddie George moving into second place on the Titans' all-time career rushing list with 19 yards. His NFL career total of 4,061 rushing yards entering the 1999 season stands third behind Lorenzo White (4,079, 1988-94) and Earl Campbell (8,574, 1978-84).

Eddie George joining Earl Campbell as the only two players in franchise history to gain 1,000 yards in each of their first four NFL seasons. George also would become the seventh running back in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards in each of their first four NFL seasons, joining Eric Dickerson, Campbell, Tony Dorsett, Terrell Davis, Curtis Martin, and Barry Sanders.

Eddie George joining Earl Campbell as the only two players in franchise history and the fourth in NFL history to run for 1,200 yards in each of their first four NFL seasons. George would join Campbell, Barry Sanders, and Eric Dickerson.

Eddie George extending his streak of consecutive starts with 48.

Eddie George and Steve McNair extending their streak of 33 consecutive starts together into the 1999 season. The streak is currently the longest stretch of consecutive starts in the NFL by a quarterback and running back combination.

Darryll Lewis moving up the franchise's all-time career interception list. He enters the season tied with W.K. Hicks and Tony Banfield for fourth with 27 picks. Within reach are Freddy Glick (30) in third and Cris Dishman (31) in second. Jim Norton leads the category with 45 career interceptions.

Bruce Matthews extending his club record streak of consecutive games played (184) and consecutive starts (181). Both streaks are the longest active streaks in the NFL.

Bruce Matthews establishing a new club record for most seasons as an Oiler/Titan by playing in his 17th season with the franchise, surpassing Elvin Bethea's (1968-83) total of 16 seasons.

Bruce Matthews earning his 12th Pro Bowl invitation. Only two players, Reggie White (13) and Jerry Rice (12), have as many selections.

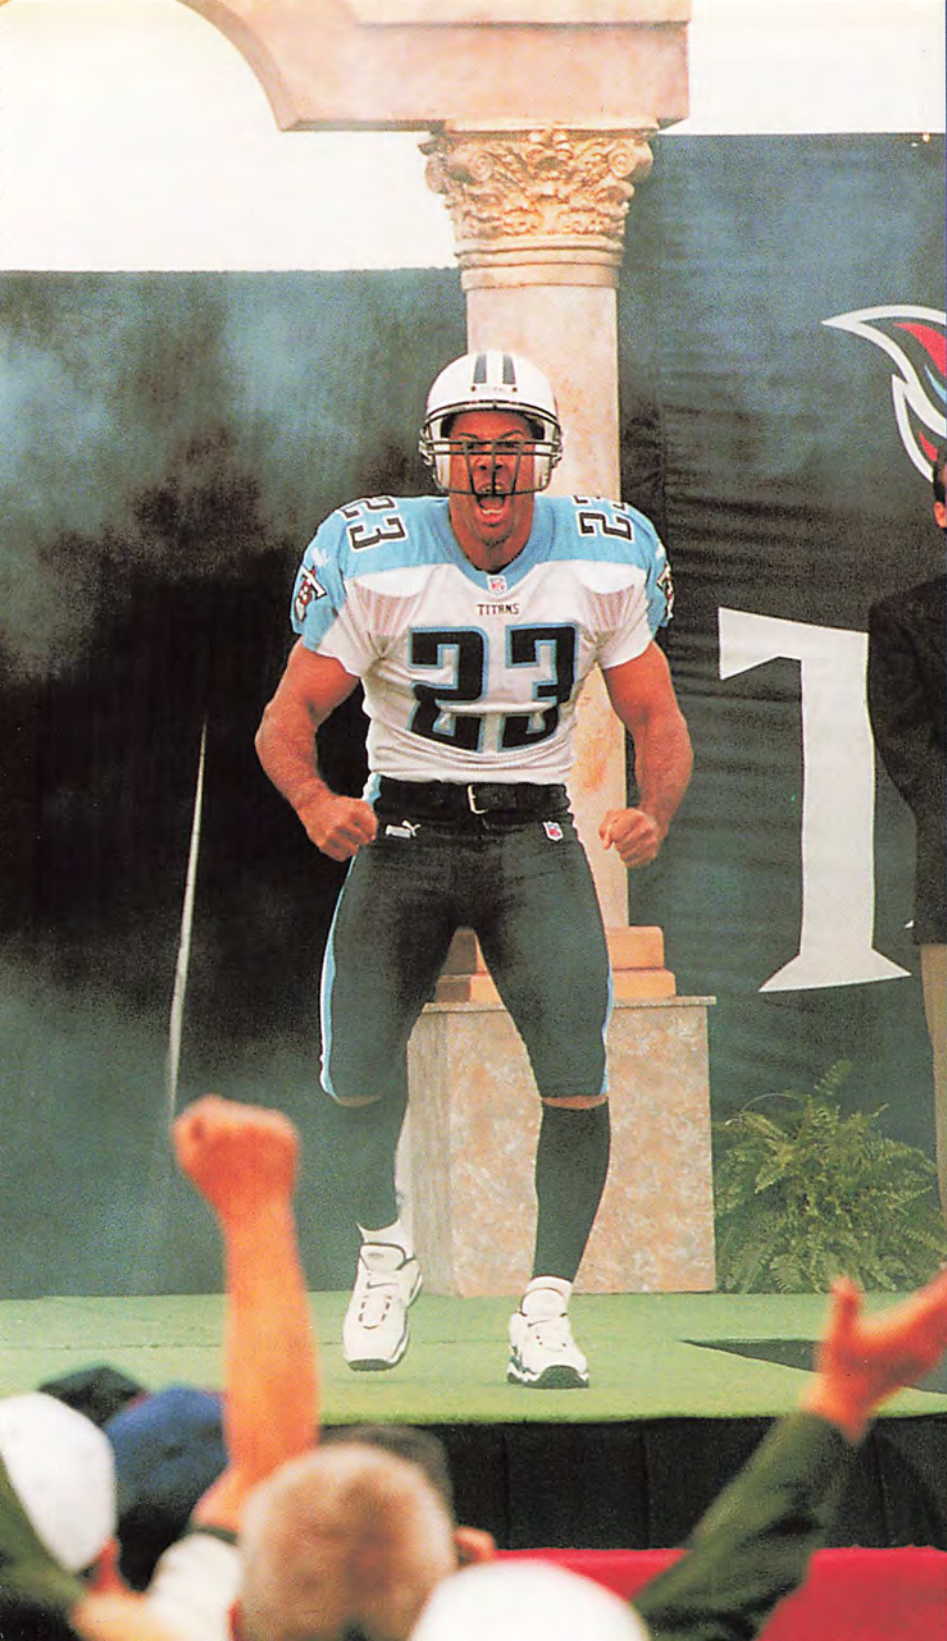

Bruce Matthews ranks 11th on the NFL's career games played list with 248 and can pass Jackie Slater (259) for the most games played by an offensive lineman in NFL history.

Steve McNair joining Warren Moon and George Blanda as the only quarterbacks in franchise history to throw for 3,000 passing yards in consecutive seasons.

Marcus Robertson moving up the franchise's all-time career interception list. He enters the season tied with Willie Alexander and Gregg Bingham for 10th with 21 picks. Within reach are Zeke Moore (24) in ninth, Ken Houston (25) in eighth, and Mike Reinfeldt (26) in seventh.

Yancey Thigpen extending his streak of 22 consecutive games with at least one reception.

Frank Wycheck joining Charles Hennigan (led team 1961-64) and Ken Burrough (led team 1974-79) as the only players in franchise history to lead the club in receptions for four consecutive seasons.

Kevin Dyson

WIDE RECEIVER

87

PRO: Smooth, all-around athlete with big-play potential...possesses tremendous leaping ability and can cut on a dime...primed for breakout second season...started last nine games of 1998 season as rookie...caught 45-yard scoring strike in first start (Cincinnati, 10/18)...drafted by Tennessee in first round (16th overall) of 1998 NFL Draft, the first receiver taken in annual selection meeting that year...only second receiver ever selected by club in first round (Haywood Jeffires, 1987).

Father Figure

Kevin has always been a father figure to his younger siblings, Patrick, Andre and Stephanie. When Kevin was nine, he would run home from school during lunch to make sure Andre, attending kindergarten half-days, was up and dressed for school. "Kevin has always been protective of all three of them," his mother, Susan Hall says. "Sometimes I had to remind him to be a kid when he was growing up."

THE QUEST FOR GEORGE

General Manager Floyd Reese made two trades on Draft Day 1996 that allowed the team to obtain Pro Bowler Eddie George and two additional selections. The Oilers traded their original pick, the 9th overall selection, to Oakland (TE Ricky Dudley) for the Raiders' 17th pick in the first round and their second- (G Jason Layman) and fourth-round (T Jon Runyan) picks. Reese then traded DT Glenn Montgomery and the 17th pick to Seattle to obtain the Seahawks' 14th pick. With the 14th selection, the Oilers took George. Seattle then traded the 17th pick to Detroit (LB Reggie Brown) for the 21st pick (G Pete Kendall) and a third round pick (FB Reggie Brown).

TOUGH IN THE "RED ZONE"

Tennessee's defense knew when to turn it up a notch in 1998. The Oilers ranked third in the AFC in denying touchdowns inside the 20-yard line as opponents crossed the end zone just 19 out of 43 tries (44.2 percent). On offense, Tennessee was the only NFL team last season to score on every possession inside the 20. The Oilers scored on all 42 trips, posting 19 TD's and 23 field goals.

TITANS IN THE WORK PLACE

Several Tennessee Titans kept busy this past offseason outside the weight room.

Running back Spencer George and defensive end Chris Ward participated in the NFL Career Internship Program, working for First American Bank. George, who earned an economics degree at Rice, worked as a sales assistant with First American's Investment Services Group. Ward, who can boast a degree in social work from Kentucky, worked as an operations technician in the cash management department.

"The NFL wants to give players tangible work experience," says Al Smith, the Titans Director of Player Development. "The internship program helps them develop job skills, so they can be prepared for life off the football field."

In addition, 12 Titans spent time in the classroom during the offseason, working towards their college degrees. Cornerbacks Dainon Sidney and Denard Walker took classes just down the road at Tennessee State. More Titans were enrolled at Houston, Texas A&M and Miami (Fla.), among other schools.

"I'm just trying to better prepare myself for life," Sidney told the Tennessean. "I just couldn't come this far and let three classes stop me from getting my degree."

1998 SEASON

1998 GAME REVIEWS

GAME 1

OILERS 23 CINCINNATI 14

Cinergy Field, September 6, 1998

Dave Krieg, relieving an injured Steve McNair, led Tennessee on three second-half scoring drives as the Oilers opened the season with a 23-14 win over the Cincinnati Bengals before 55,848 at Cinergy Field. Krieg completed 7-of-13 passes for 105 yards in one half of work after McNair injured his right elbow near the end of the first half. Tennessee scored on its opening possession, moving 60 yards on eight plays before settling for a 38-yard field goal by Al Del Greco. The Bengals answered with a 23-yard scoring strike from Neil O'Donnell to Darnay Scott to take a 7-3 lead. McNair then marched the Oilers 66 yards, finding Willie Davis from eight yards out to give Tennessee a 10-7 lead heading into the locker room. Krieg engineered a touchdown drive on his first possession, a drive that culminated with a 3-yard run by Eddie George to give the Oilers a 10-point lead. Cincinnati cut the lead to three on a 3-yard run by Corey Dillon. But after a 31-yard field goal by Del Greco, Marcus Robertson intercepted O'Donnell, allowing Del Greco to nail a game-clinching 48-yarder with 5:29 remaining. The Tennessee defense, after allowing Dillon to rush for 246 yards in Cincinnati a season ago, yielded just 87 yards to Dillon and 96 overall on the ground.

GAME 2 SAN DIEGO 13 OILERS 7

Vanderbilt Stadium, September 13, 1998

The Oilers' first regular season game in Nashville was dominated by the San Diego defense, as the Chargers held off Tennessee for a 13-7 win before 41,089 at Vanderbilt Stadium. San Diego improved to 2-0, while the Oilers dropped to 1-1. The Chargers held Tennessee to 63 yards rushing and Eddie George to just 11 yards on 15 carries. The Oilers appeared to treat the crowd to a textbook opening when Steve McNair hit Yancey Thigpen for a 32-yard touchdown pass on the opening possession. But the play was nullified by a holding call and the Oilers were forced to punt. The Chargers took a 3-0 lead on a 48-yard field goal by John Carney late in the first quarter. San Diego built that lead to 6-0 when Carney connected from 23 yards out. The Oilers answered by driving 80 yards in 14 plays, capping the drive with a 15-yard touchdown pass from McNair to Frank Wycheck with 22 seconds left in the half to give Tennessee a 7-6 halftime lead. But San Diego took the lead for good on a 1-yard plunge by Natrone Means, set up by a 20-yard scramble by Ryan Leaf on third-and-9 from the Oiler 21. The Charger defense took over from there, preventing Tennessee from crossing midfield the rest of the way.

GAME 3
NEW ENGLAND 27 OILERS 16
Foxboro Stadium, September 20, 1998

The New England Patriots rallied for two touchdowns in an 18-second span in the fourth quarter to rally for a 27-16 win over the Tennessee Oilers before 59,973 at Foxboro Stadium. The Patriots improved to 2-1, while the Oilers fell to 1-2. The teams traded field goals in the first half, with Adam Vinatieri's 41-yarder at the end of the second quarter tying the game at six heading into the locker room. Tennessee jumped out on top on its first possession of the second half. Steve McNair -- picking up a Patriots blitz -- lofted a 22-yard screen pass to Eddie George, capping a 62-yard drive and giving the Oilers a 13-6 lead. George bounced back from a subpar performance against San Diego to net 100 rushing yards and 160 yards of total offense. New England tied the contest again on a 7-yard run by rookie Robert Edwards. The Oilers countered with Al Del Greco's third field goal of the day, a 45-yarder with 10:54 left in the game for a 16-13 lead. But Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 51-yard scoring strike to lift New England to a 20-16 lead with 4:25 remaining. Two plays later, Lawyer Milloy intercepted McNair and raced in from 30 yards out to seal the win.

GAME 4 JACKSONVILLE 27 OILERS 22

Vanderbilt Stadium, September 27, 1998

The Jacksonville Jaguars held the Oilers' offense in check after halftime en route to a 27-22 come-from-behind win before 34,656 at Vanderbilt Stadium. The Jaguars improved to a franchise-best 4-0, while the Oilers fell to 1-3. Tennessee exploded early, as Steve McNair found Yancey Thigpen for two scores in the first half. Trailing 7-3, McNair hit Thigpen on a 38-yard bomb to give the Oilers a 10-7 lead. After a 32-yard field goal by Al Del Greco extended the lead to 13-7, Darryll Lewis intercepted Mark Brunell, setting up Tennessee at the Jaguar 32. Four plays later, McNair fired an 18-yard scoring strike to Thigpen, giving the Oilers a 19-7 lead. But Jacksonville narrowed the gap to five just before the half, then took the lead on a 1-yard run by Fred Taylor on its first possession of the second half. Blaine Bishop recovered a Jimmy Smith fumble to set up another 32-yarder by Del Greco, pushing the Oilers back on top 22-21 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. But Mike Hollis booted two field goals in the fourth quarter, while the Jaguars ate up 12:12 of the final stanza. Thigpen finished his most prolific day as an Oiler with 102 yards on six catches, while former Jaguar Eddie Robinson had nine tackles, an interception and a sack against his old club.

GAME 5
OILERS 12 BALTIMORE 8
Camden Yards, October 11, 1998

Ignited by a dominating defensive effort, the Oilers ended a three-game losing streak with a crucial 12-8 win over the Baltimore Ravens before 68,561 at the New Stadium at Camden Yards. Tennessee improved to 2-3 with its second division triumph on the road. Baltimore fell to 2-3. In a contest marred by penalties and peculiar plays, the Oilers defense kept Baltimore out of the end zone and yielded just 36 yards on the ground. The Ravens jumped out of the gate immediately, sacking Steve McNair for a safety on the game's third play. But McNair exacted some revenge later in the first quarter, turning a busted play into a 40-yard touchdown scamper that gave Tennessee a 6-2 lead. Terry Killens then blocked a Kyle Richardson punt to set up a 26-yard field goal by Al Del Greco that boosted the Oilers' lead to 9-2 at half-time. Del Greco added a 29-yarder before Matt Stover answered with field goals of 21 and 45 yards to cut the lead to 12-8. Tennessee then responded with its most emphatic defensive stop of the season, stuffing Priest Holmes for no gain on three consecutive plays to halt a Ravens' drive with 8:19 remaining. Baltimore, with no time outs left, drove from its own 11-yard line to the Oiler 29 late, but Blaine Bishop intercepted Eric Zeier near the goal line on the final play of the game to secure the victory. Eddie George rushed for a season-high 121 yards and Tennessee overcame 13 penalties in ending a two-game skid to the Ravens.

OILERS 44 CINCINNATI 14

Vanderbilt Stadium, October 18, 1998

The Oilers earned their first win in Nashville in a thoroughly dominating 44-14 win over the Cincinnati Bengals before 33,288 at Vanderbilt Stadium. Tennessee, which racked up 515 yards of total offense, evened its record at 3-3, while the Bengals fell to 2-4. The Oilers opened up with some trickery as Mike Archie connected with Jackie Harris on an 18-yard option pass to give Tennessee a 7-0 lead. The Oilers then pushed the lead to 17-0 on a pair of time-consuming marches – one a 15-play, 66-yard drive, the other a 13-play, 74-yard jaunt. Al Del Greco hit his second field goal of the day (a 38-yarder) just before the half to lift the Oiler lead to 20-0. Tennessee controlled the ball for a whopping 22:24 of the first half. After a 42-yarder by Del Greco, Darryll Lewis nailed Cincinnati quarterback Neil O'Donnell and Joe Bowden scooped up the loose ball and rumbled 12 yards to make it 30-0. The Bengals finally got on the scoreboard on a Corey Dillon touchdown run, but Steve McNair answered with a 45-yard scoring strike to rookie Kevin Dyson. After another Bengals tally, Rodney Thomas ended the scoring with a 1-yard plunge. Eddie George notched his third 100-yard performance of the season with 107 yards in just over three quarters of action, while McNair completed 16 of his 21 passes (76.2 percent) for 277 yards. The win marked the Oilers' first sweep of Cincinnati in five years.

CHICAGO 23 OILERS 20
Vanderbilt Stadium, October 25, 1998

Craig Hentrich had a 49-yard field goal attempt blocked with 14 seconds left, allowing the Chicago Bears to escape Nashville with a 23-20 win before 40,089 at Vanderbilt Stadium. Tennessee fell to 3-4, while the Bears improved to 3-5. The block capped a furious fourth quarter that saw the Oilers rally from a 10-point deficit, only to fall by a late Bears field goal. Chicago jumped out to a 7-0 lead when John Thierry knocked the ball loose from Chris Sanders and the Bears recovered at the Oiler 1, setting up a scoring plunge by Robert Chancey. The teams traded field goals before Steve McNair hit Derrick Mason for his first career touchdown from 13 yards out, knotting the score at 10 heading into the locker room. But Mike Archie fumbled the second half kickoff, giving the Bears another short field to work with and they capitalized, as Ty Hallock rumbled in from six yards out to give Chicago a 17-10 lead. It was 20-10 before Tennessee mounted a rally. Al Del Greco booted a 19-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to trim the lead to 20-13. Then, after Jeff Jaeger missed a 34-yarder, the Oilers drove 76 yards, capping the march with a 7-yard run by Rodney Thomas to tie the score. But Glyn Milburn returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards, setting the Bears up for a 33-yarder by Jaeger with 1:03. Out of timeouts, the Oilers drove to the Bears 31 before Hentrich's kick was blocked.

GAME 8
OILERS 41 PITTSBURGH 31
Three Rivers Stadium, Nov. 1, 1998

Eddie George rushed at will and the Oilers defense held Pittsburgh to just 54 yards on the ground as Tennessee romped to a 41-31 win over Pittsburgh before 58,222 at Three Rivers Stadium. The Oilers evened their record at 4-4, moving within a game of the 5-3 Steelers. The Oilers made their intentions known right from the outset, giving George the ball on seven consecutive plays to start the game. That first drive ended with a field goal, giving the Oilers a 3-0 lead. Tennessee built the lead to 10-0 when Steve McNair hit Frank Wycheck for a 2-yard score. The Steelers cut the lead to three on a touchdown pass from Kordell Stewart to Charles Johnson, but the Oilers answered right before the half. McNair capped a 10-play, 72-yard drive with a 6-yard strike to Kevin Dyson to push the lead to 17-7. The Oilers put the game away in the third quarter, taking a 20-7 lead on a 32-yard field goal by Al Del Greco before George – who finished with a season-high 153 yards – scampered 37 yards for a touchdown. McNair added a 29-yard touchdown pass to Willie Davis and Lonnie Marts returned a Stewart interception 27 yards to eventually pad the lead to 41-15. In all, the defense picked off three passes and held Pittsburgh running back Jerome Bettis to 26 yards on 11 carries. McNair tied a career high with three touchdown passes, completing 13-of-21 for 167 yards. The win marked the Oilers' first in Pittsburgh since 1993.

GAME 9

OILERS 31 TAMPA BAY 22

Raymond James Stadium, Nov. 8, 1998

The Oilers rallied from a 13-point half-time deficit, churning out 176 yards on the ground after intermission en route to a 31-22 triumph over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before 65,054 at Raymond James Stadium. The Oilers improved to 5-4 in handing the Bucs (4-5) their first loss at their new digs. After the teams traded field goals in the first quarter, the Bucs erupted for 13 points in the second quarter to build a 16-3 halftime lead. Trent Dilfer hit Bert Emanuel for a juggling, 58-yard bomb before Michael Husted ended the half with his third field goal, a 24-yarder. But the Oilers refused to panic, instead sticking to their plan to run right at Tampa Bay's third-ranked rushing defense. Eddie George trimmed the lead to 16-10 with a 14-yard touchdown, then gained 53 yards on three consecutive runs on the Oilers' next possession. That set up Mike Archie, who ran untouched for a 7-yard score on his first career carry, giving Tennessee a 17-16 lead. Early in the fourth quarter, Anthony Dorsett downed a Craig Hentrich punt at the Bucs 1-yard line. On the very next play, Joe Bowden caught a bullet from Dilfer and waltzed three feet into the end zone to increase the lead to 24-16. Tampa Bay rallied as Dilfer found Reidel Anthony for a 10-yard score to cut the cushion to two points. But Dilfer failed to connect with Emanuel on the two-point conversion. Then, with two minutes left, the Bucs were one play away from forcing an Oiler punt. But that one play -- a third-and-eight from the Tennessee 29 -- was a back-breaker as Steve McNair eluded Tyoka Jackson and rumbled 71 yards for the game-clinching score. George (134 yards) notched his fifth-straight 100-yard effort as Tennessee rolled up 236 yards on the ground. The Oilers' 13-point comeback was their biggest since erasing a 14-point deficit against the then-Los Angeles Raiders in a 38-35 win on September 11, 1988.

GAME 10

OILERS 23 PITTSBURGH 14

Vanderbilt Stadium, November 15, 1998

The Oilers scored 10 points in the game's final three seconds, capping a furious finish that resulted in a 23-14 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers before 41,104 exhausted fans at Vanderbilt Stadium. The Oilers -- earning their first season sweep of the Steelers since 1993 -- improved to 6-4, dropping Pittsburgh to that same mark. After the two teams traded turnovers, Al Del Greco nailed a 46-yard field goal to give Tennessee a 3-0 lead. Pittsburgh struck back on the ensuing possession, as Kordell Stewart found Mark Bruener from 10 yards out for a 7-3 Steeler lead. Perry Phenix scooped up a Richard Huntley fumble on Pittsburgh's next possession, setting the Oilers up at the Steeler 39. Six plays later, Steve McNair hit Willie Davis on a 25-yard scoring strike to give Tennessee a 10-7 lead. Stewart then found rookie Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala on a rollout screen for a 26-yard touchdown to put Pittsburgh back on top. Del Greco kicked a 24-yarder to pull the Oilers within 14-13 just before the half. The second half looked like a punting exhibition until the Steelers drove to the Oiler 25 late in the game. Facing a fourth-and-one, Pittsburgh kept its offense on the field. But Gary Walker slithered through a gap and tackled Stewart for a 4-yard loss, giving the offense a chance to win the game. McNair and company obliged, but not before converting two crucial third downs. On third-and-10 from the Oiler 29, McNair hit Frank Wycheck for a 31-yard gain. Then, on third-and-five from the Steeler 35, he found Derrick Mason across the middle to the Pittsburgh 16. Three plays later, Del Greco nailed a 22-yarder to seemingly cap a thrilling, 16-14 win. But there were still three seconds left. On the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh tried its best Stanford-Cal imitation, lateraling the ball three times before Will Blackwell fumbled in the end zone. Michael Roan pounced on the ball for his first career score, providing the final margin. Eddie George managed 79 tough yards, while the Tennessee defense again held Jerome Bettis (14 carries, 29 yards) in check. Del Greco's 11th career game-winning kick helped the Oilers run their division mark to 5-1.

N.Y. JETS 24 OILERS 3

Vanderbilt Stadium, November 22, 1998

The New York Jets exploded in the second half, turning an intermission deadlock into a 24-3 win over the Tennessee Oilers before 37,084 at Vanderbilt Stadium. The Jets improved to 7-4, while the Oilers dropped to 6-5. It was New York's first win over the Oilers in eight years. The Jets ventured into Tennessee territory three times in the first half but could only manage a 43-yard field goal by John Hall. The Oilers, after two rather indifferent possessions, got their offense in gear midway through the second quarter, capping a 14-play, 75-yard drive with a 34-yard field goal by Al Del Greco that knotted the game. Near the end of the second quarter, Tennessee marched from its own 9 to the Jet 38 but a hail mary toss was batted down to close the half. New York seized momentum in the third quarter, pushing ahead when Vinny Testaverde lofted a pass to Keyshawn Johnson in the left corner of the end zone. After the Oilers went three plays and out, the Jets struck right back, marching 66 yards to the Tennessee 2-yard line. Testaverde then hit Keith Byars to give New York a 17-3 lead early in the fourth quarter. The Jets sealed the win on their next possession as Curtis Martin scampered 31 yards to increase to lead to three touchdowns. New York's defense held the Oilers to 83 yards in the second half, 40 in the fourth quarter. Eddie George -- who gained 72 yards -- eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the third consecutive season, becoming just the 10th player in league history to accomplish the feat in each of his first three NFL campaigns.

GAME 12
SEATTLE 20 OILERS 18
Kingdome, November 29, 1998

Seattle's Todd Peterson booted a 48-yard field goal with one second remaining, capping an incredible final minute and lifting the Seahawks to a stunning 20-18 win over the Tennessee Oilers before 59,048 at the Kingdome. Seattle evened its record at 6-6 while dropping the Oilers to the same mark. For the second consecutive contest, the Oilers found themselves in a tight defensive struggle in the first 30 minutes. Al Del Greco kicked field goals from 26 and 30 yards to give Tennessee a 6-0 lead. Peterson trimmed the margin in half just before the half with a 50-yarder. The Oilers then endured an emotional third quarter. Seahawks quarterback Jon Kitna connected with tight end Christian Fauria, who was subsequently nailed by Marcus Robertson at the Oiler 1. Joe Bowden picked up the loose ball for Tennessee. But seconds before the fumble, Fauria collided with Oilers cornerback Denard Walker, drawing a pass interference penalty and knocking Walker unconscious. After a 17-plus minute delay, Walker was carted off to the hospital, where he was later released. The Oilers went three plays and out, then watched the Seahawks march down the field as Kitna hit Joey Galloway for a 7-yard score and a 10-6 lead. Del Greco cut the lead to 10-9 with a 43-yarder early in the fourth quarter, but Kitna struck back 50 seconds later. His 59-yard scoring strike to James McKnight pushed the Seattle lead to eight points. The Oilers calmly responded as Steve McNair capped a 9-play, 51-yard drive with a nifty 3-yard run to pull Tennessee within 17-15. Eddie George (140 total yards) came up just short on the 2-point attempt, but the Oilers got the ball back with 3:32 left. McNair hit George and Frank Wycheck for 17-yard gains, moving the ball to the Seahawk 25. Del Greco nailed a 42-yarder with 33 seconds left to give the Oilers an 18-17 lead. But Kitna answered, driving Seattle 41 yards in just 32 seconds, giving Peterson the opportunity to win the game.

GAME 13 OILERS 16 BALTIMORE 14

Vanderbilt Stadium, December 6, 1998

The Oilers raced to an early lead, then held on late to defeat the Baltimore Ravens 16-14 before 31,124 at Vanderbilt Stadium. Tennessee improved to 7-6, dropping the Ravens to 5-8. In sweeping the season series from Baltimore, the Oilers upped their division mark to a gaudy 6-1. Tennessee marched down the field on its opening possession, capping the 10-play drive with a 48-yard field goal by Al Del Greco. After the defense forced another Ravens punt, Steve McNair escorted Tennessee down the field, completing four passes to push the Oilers to the Baltimore 2. Eddie George then notched his fourth rushing touchdown of the season to give Tennessee a 10-0 lead. Del Greco added another 48-yarder to boost the Oilers' cushion to 13-0 at the half. But early in the third quarter, Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner on a leaping catch-and-run for 66 yards to cut the lead to 13-7. After the teams exchanged seven punts, Kyle Richardson shanked a punt 21 yards, giving the Oilers great field position at the Ravens 36. Tennessee capitalized with Del Greco's third boot of the afternoon – this one from 34 yards out – to forge a 16-7 lead. Baltimore struck back quickly, as Harbaugh connected with Turner on a 20-yard scoring strike to cut the lead to two with 1:46 remaining. The Ravens got the ball back with 1:18 left, but on second down Harbaugh looked for Turner again. Samari Rolle got a hand on the ball, juggling it as he fell to the turf before Steve Jackson cradled his first pick of the season to seal the win. The interception capped a terrific defensive effort for Tennessee, one that saw the Oilers record a season-high six sacks, yield just 10 first downs and hold Baltimore to 58 yards rushing. Del Greco nailed three field goals for the seventh time in 1998 and the 38th time in his career.

GAME 14

OILERS 16 JACKSONVILLE 13

ALLTEL Stadium, December 13, 1998

Al Del Greco kicked a 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining as the Tennessee Oilers kept their playoff aspirations alive with a pulsating 16-13 win over the Jacksonville Jaguars before 65,657 at ALLTEL Stadium. The Oilers improved to 8-6 and closed division play with a 7-1 mark. Jacksonville, looking to clinch its first AFC Central Division title, fell to 10-4. The Jaguars, starting journeyman Jamie Martin at quarterback in place of an injured Mark Brunell, took command early in the game. Mike Hollis capped their first drive with a 21-yard field goal to build a 3-0 Jacksonville lead. Then, after an Eddie George fumble gave the Jaguars the ball at the Tennessee 22, Fred Taylor scored from one yard out to increase the lead to 10-0. The Oilers answered early in the second quarter as Steve McNair hit Jackie Harris on a 4-yard scoring strike to pull Tennessee within three points. Del Greco hit a 28-yarder just before the half to tie the game at 10. Martin sprained his knee late in the second quarter, forcing Jacksonville to hand the reins to rookie Jonathan Quinn in the second half. After a scoreless third quarter, Del Greco booted a 30-yarder to give Tennessee its first lead - 13-10 - with 14:47 remaining. Hollis responded with a 29-yard field goal to knot the contest at 13 with 6:44 left. After the two teams exchanged possessions, the Oilers took over at their own 24 with 2:19 on the clock. McNair, playing with a severe case of turf toe, orchestrated a 10-play drive, completing three passes for 33 yards and rushing for an additional 18 yards of real estate. That set up Del Greco's heroics. The line drive kick snuck inside the left upright, escorting Tennessee to its best division mark since 1993. The field goal was Del Greco's 14th straight without a miss and his second game-winner of the season. McNair finished with 232 yards through the air and another 81 on the ground. Yancey Thigpen returned to the starting lineup and led the team with five catches for 68 yards. The Oilers' defense, meanwhile, held Taylor to just 42 yards en route to the club's first victory over the Jaguars in two seasons.

GAME 15 GREEN BAY 30 OILERS 22

Lambeau Field, December 20, 1998

The Green Bay Packers, riding three scoring strikes to Antonio Freeman, held off the Tennessee Oilers 30-22 before 59,888 at snowy Lambeau Field. Green Bay improved its record to 10-5, while the Oilers dropped to 8-7. The Packers jumped on the board quickly as Brett Favre found Freeman on a 57-yard catch-and-run just 1:38 into the game. Favre hooked up with Freeman again – this time on a 68-yarder – to increase Green Bay's lead to 14-0 late in the opening quarter. But the Oilers responded on their next drive, as Steve McNair lofted a pass to Derrick Mason for a 25-yard score. Green Bay moved its lead back up to 14 points as Favre hit Freeman for the third time, a 32-yard touchdown pass with 1:11 left in the half to make it 21-7. Ryan Longwell booted a 38-yard field goal to make it 24-7, then McNair again went to work. He hooked up Yancey Thigpen (8 catches, 90 yards) on a 30-yard score to cut the lead to 24-14 with 1:36 remaining in the third quarter. The Packers responded with two more field goals from Longwell, leaving Tennessee in a 30-14 hole. McNair capped a late 74-yard drive with a 3-yard scoring strike to Mason to get the Oilers within 10 points. Eddie George ran around the right side for the ensuing two-point conversion, then the Oilers lined up for an onside kick with 53 seconds left. Craig Hentrich's boot eluded Mike Prior for an instant, but Prior pounced on it to seal a 30-22 Packer win. McNair set career highs with 29 completions and 49 attempts (for 263 yards), while tying a career best with three touchdowns. Frank Wycheck hauled in a career-high 10 balls, while Jon Runyan held Reggie White in check in White's last regular season appearance at Lambeau. The loss was the franchise's first in Green Bay in four trips.

GAME 16

MINNESOTA 26 OILERS 16

Vanderbilt Stadium, December 26, 1998

The Minnesota Vikings rekindled their passing offense in the second half to rally for a 26-16 victory over the Tennessee Oilers before 41,121 at Vanderbilt Stadium. The Vikings improved to a NFC-best 15-1, while Tennessee concluded its final season as the "Oilers" with an 8-8 mark. Tennessee had unveiled its new "Titans" logo for the 1999 season earlier in the week. After yielding a safety (intentional grounding in the end zone) on its initial possession, the Oilers offense hit its stride, scoring on three consecutive possessions. Al Del Greco capped a 61-yard drive with a 36-yard field goal to give the Oilers a 3-2 lead. Minnesota's Gary Anderson answered with a 39-yarder, but Del Greco kicked a 33-yarder on Tennessee's next possession for a 6-5 lead. After a Vikings punt, Steve McNair completed passes of 23, 26 and 15 yards to march the Oilers to the Minnesota 2. Eddie George punched it in from there to push the Tennessee lead to 13-5. Anderson hit a 23-yard field goal just before the half to cut the margin to five heading into the locker room. The Vikings offense shook off the cobwebs in the third quarter as Randall Cunningham orchestrated two touchdown drives. Cunningham lofted a 5-yard score to Randy Moss, then hit Moss again for a two-point conversion to give Minnesota a 16-13 lead. Del Greco knotted the score with a 45-yard field goal (his 17th straight), but Cunningham fired a 38-yard scoring strike to Cris Carter to vault the Vikings to a 23-16 lead. The Oilers could get no closer than the Minnesota 44 the rest of the way, while Anderson capped the scoring with a late 39-yard field goal. Tennessee, which will move to a new downtown stadium in 1999, finished its one tour at Vanderbilt 3-5. Guard Bruce Matthews, completing his 16th season, donned an Oiler uniform for the 248th and final time.

HISTORY

Oilers to Titans – A Look Back in Time

Titans Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., made it official at this press conference, signing the paperwork that would bring the Oilers to Nashville. Adams presented Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen with an Oilers jersey. Nashville voters later approved a referendum (May 7, 1996) in which Davidson County voters approved public funding for a new downtown stadium.

JULY 29, 1998

Adams announced during the 1998 training camp that the Oilers would have a new team name beginning in 1999. He joined NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue and head coach Jeff Fisher in telling the players.

The anticipation ended Nov. 14, 1998 when Adams announced at the new stadium site that the Oilers would be called the Tennessee Titans beginning in 1999. It was a long process that included input from fans across the region and an advisory council which met with Adams on a regular basis.

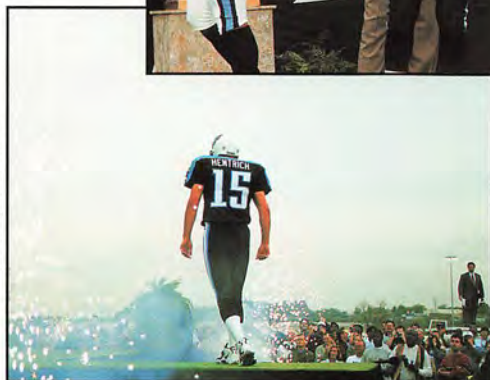

DECEMBER 22, 1998

Adams unveiled the Titans logo Dec. 22, 1998 at the Parthenon at Centennial Park in Nashville with the assistance of Governor Don Sundquist. Local television stations broadcasted the event live, and hundreds of fans showed up to get a peak of the team's new logo.

APRIL 13, 1999

The team's uniform unveiling on April 13, 1999 drew a festive crowd of nearly 2,000 people at the new stadium. Above, from L to R: Eddie George, Frank Wycheck, Craig Hentrich and Blaine Bishop model the new Titans look before spirited fans. Hentrich was greeted by fireworks as he crossed the stage.

THE ORIGIN OF NFL TEAM NICKNAMES

TITANS — On November 14, 1997, owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announces that Tennessee's NFL franchise would change its name to Titans for the 1999 season. The franchise was known as the Houston Oilers from 1960-96, then as the Tennessee Oilers in 1997 and 1998 after relocating to Nashville. "Titans come from early Greek mythology and the fact that Nashville is known as the 'Athens of the South' makes the Titans name very appropriate," said Adams. The Titans logo and color scheme are revealed at a statewide press conference on December 22. The logo features the fire of the Titans, exemplifying the characteristics of power, strength, knowledge and excellence. It also includes three stars, representing the state of Tennessee. The color scheme features navy blue, red, silver and Columbia blue, the latter providing a link to the team's past. "I feel we have developed a logo that fans throughout the state of Tennessee and around the country will embrace for years to come," Adams said. "It is a logo worthy of the nickname and of the brand of football I hope our team will play next year."

BEARS — George Halas moved the Decatur Staleys to Chicago in 1921. The Staleys played at Wrigley Field, the home of baseball's Cubs. Halas determined that if the baseball tenants were Cubs, then his more rugged gridiron combatants should be known as the Bears.

BENGALS — Paul Brown chose this nickname for Cincinnati's 1968 AFL expansion team because there had been earlier football teams in the city called the Bengals. The elder Bengals were members of the AFL in 1937, competed as an independent club in 1938, then played in a new AFL from 1939-41 before the league again folded.

BILLS — The nickname refers to William F. Cody, who was known as "Buffalo Bill." Buffalo had a football team called the Bisons, but the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams had the same name. The football team held a contest to select a new nickname following the 1946 season. More than 4,500 entries were submitted and Bills beat out Bullets, Nickels and Blue Devils.

BRONCOS — This nickname was also selected through a contest in January of 1960. Broncos was the winner, referring to Denver's Wild West heritage. Denver's 1921 entry in the Midwest Baseball League team was also named the Broncos.

BROWNS — Cleveland's All-American Football Conference entry was founded in 1946. Paul Brown was named the team's first coach and general manager. The Browns moved to Baltimore in 1996, but the team's history remained, paving the way for the Browns to be resurrected as an expansion team this season.

BUCCANEERS — This name defeated more than 400 entries in a radio-sponsored competition, held one month after Tampa was awarded the first of two expansion franchises on April 24, 1974. Buccaneers was the winner, beating out such noble competitors as Buzzards, Sea Horses and (yes) Mafia.

CARDINALS — A football club on the southwest side of Chicago was formed in 1898. The team was known as the Normals until 1901, when founder Chris O'Brien secured some hand-me-down jerseys from the University of Chicago. The jerseys were actually maroon, but the color had faded, striking O'Brien as more of a cardinal tint. The team became the Racine Cardinals, keeping the nickname as the club moved from Chicago (1922) to St. Louis (1960) and, finally, to Phoenix (1988).

CHARGERS — The Los Angeles AFL franchise held a contest in 1960. Hollywood resident Gerald Courtney was awarded an all-expenses-paid trip to Mexico City and Acapulco after submitting Chargers. Three reasons for choosing Chargers have been offered — it sounded dynamic; the club's new stationary featured a horse; and owner Baron Hilton had recently instituted the Carte Blanche card. The team kept the name when it moved to San Diego the following year.

CHIEFS — This original AFL franchise was originally the Dallas Texans but relocated to Kansas City. Owner Lamar Hunt picked Chiefs as a nickname to honor Kansas City mayor Roe "The Chief" Bartle for his efforts in securing the team. Bartle promised to enlarge Kansas City's Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as his club had in Dallas.

COLTS — In 1946, the Miami Seahawks of the All-American Football Conference were relocated to Baltimore. Charles Evans of Middle River, Md., won a name contest by submitting Colts. His reasoning? "Colts are the youngest entry in the league, Maryland is famous for its race horses and it is short, easily pronounced and fits well in newspaper headlines." The franchise kept the name when it moved to Indianapolis in 1984.

COWBOYS — This name might seem like an easy choice in Dallas, but Rangers was actually the first name suggested. The club went with Cowboys since Rangers might cause confusion with a local minor-league team of the same name.

DOLPHINS — After Miami was awarded an AFL expansion franchise in 1965, a contest was held to determine the name. A dozen names were forwarded to a seven-member screening committee of local media and Dolphins was the runaway winner. Although 622 entrants submitted Dolphins, Mrs. Robert Swanson of Miami won the two lifetime passes to Dolphins games. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of a 1965 tilt between Notre Dame and the University of Miami. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

EAGLES — The NFL's Frankford Yellowjackets were awarded to a syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray in 1933. Bell named the new Philadelphia team Eagles in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act.

FALCONS — Atlanta held a contest in 1965 and many chose Falcons for the NFL's newest team. The best argument was submitted by Julia Elliot, a teacher from Griffin, Ga. — "the Falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops its prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition."

49ers — Owner Anthony J. Morabito chose 49ers for his All-America Football Conference squad because it reflected San Francisco's link to the California Gold Rush. The 49ers kept the name when they joined the NFL in 1950.

GIANTS — In 1925, Tim Mara purchased New York's first professional football team for a reported $500. Mara decided on Giants because his team would play at the Polo Grounds, the home of baseball's New York Giants. The original Giants derived their name from the city's giant buildings.

JAGUARS — Jacksonville held a contest in 1991, two years before the city was awarded the NFL's 30th franchise. Jaguars claimed the majority of votes, besting a group that included Sharks, Stingrays and (ironically) Panthers.

JETS — New York's AFL squad was originally the Titans. In 1963, after three seasons, a five-man syndicate bought the franchise. On the same day they hired Weeb Ewbank, the owners announced that they were changing the team's name to Jets. It sounded like New York's baseball Mets and LaGuardia Airport was nearby.

LIONS — Detroit radio executive George Richards purchased the NFL's Portsmouth Spartans and moved them to the Motor City in 1934. Richards chose Lions. Felines were already prevalent in Detroit. Baseball could claim the Tigers and a Detroit football team called the Panthers had folded after two years in 1927.

PACKERS — In 1919, Earl "Curly" Lambeau and George Calhoun pieced together a group in the Green Bay Press-Gazette editorial room with the notion of starting a football team. Lambeau's employer at the Indian Packing Company — Frank Peck — provided jerseys, equipment and use of its athletic field for practice. Early on, the club was identified as a project of the company, hence Packers became a natural fit.

PANTHERS — The nickname for Carolina's 1995 expansion team was selected by team president Mark Richardson, the son of owner Jerry Richardson. The younger Richardson also chose the Panthers' colors of Panther blue, silver and black.

PATRIOTS — A group of New England sportswriters picked Patriots as a tribute to Patriot Day, which celebrates Paul Revere's ride.

RAIDERS — In 1960, Oakland held a contest to pick a name for its AFL team. The fans chose Senors, but Oakland management opted for Raiders.

RAMS — In 1936, Cleveland's new AFL franchise decided to take its name from one of the top collegiate teams of the era, the Fordham Rams. The Rams name stuck with eventual moves to Los Angeles (1946) and St. Louis (1995).

RAVENS — After a 12-year void, Baltimore again acquired an NFL team in 1996 when the Cleveland Browns relocated. Owner Art Modell allowed the Browns' name, colors and history to remain in Cleveland. Baltimore then set up focus groups and fan polls to help secure a new name. Ravens won out over Americans and Marauders. The name refers to the mythical bird in Edgar Allan Poe's poem "The Raven." Poe lived and died in Baltimore.

REDSKINS — George Marshall headed a syndicate that purchased an NFL team for Boston in 1933. The team would play at the home of baseball's Boston Braves so it adopted the same name. The following year, the Braves moved to Fenway Park and changed their name to the Redskins. The name remained when the team moved to Washington in 1937.

SAINTS — The New Orleans NFL franchise was awarded on All Saints Day (Nov. 1) in 1966. Plus, the song "When the Saints Go Marchin' In" is often associated with the city of New Orleans.

SEAHAWKS — In a 1975 contest, Seattle's expansion franchise received 20,365 entries, extolling 1,741 different names. Seahawks, a name denoting the city's link to the sea, was on 151 ballots.

STEELERS — Pittsburgh's professional football team (founded in 1933) was, like its baseball neighbors, initially dubbed the Pirates. In 1940, owner Art Rooney changed the name to Steelers, reflecting the city's ties to the steel industry. The name was allegedly suggested by the wife of the team's ticket manager.

VIKINGS — General manager Bert Rose recommended Vikings to Minnesota's Board of Directors in 1960. The name represent both an aggressive person and the Nordic tradition inherent in the region.

Information compiled from NFL team media guides and The Complete Book of Sports Nicknames.

1981 – Quarterback George Blanda (1960-66)

Blanda was the offensive catalyst for the explosive Oiler squads of the early 1960s. He played quarterback and handled the placekicking chores in Columbia blue for seven of his NFL-record 26 seasons in the league. Blanda was the team's leading passer and scorer in each of those seven seasons and still owns Oilers records for most extra points (299), most touchdown passes in a season (36) and most touchdown passes in a game (7). He is also second in points scored with 596. The 36 scoring tosses stood as an NFL record for an astounding 23 years. Blanda's NFL career records include most games (340), most points (2,002) and most extra points (943). And, perhaps most importantly to Oilers fans, Blanda captained the Oilers to two consecutive AFL titles in 1960 and 1961. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

1986 — Safety Ken Houston (1967-72)

Houston is still considered one of the best safeties in football annals. He picked off 49 passes over his 14-season NFL career and earned Pro Bowl honors 12 consecutive times (1968-69 AFL, 1970-79 NFL). Houston returned an NFL-record nine interceptions for a touchdown in his six seasons as an Oiler. Four of those scores came in 1971, which ties an NFL record. He returned two in one game against San Diego in the 1971 season finale, which also ties an NFL mark. Houston also holds the Oilers record for most career interception return yards with 650. Originally a ninth-round draft choice out of Prairie View A&M, Houston played his final eight seasons with the Washington Redskins. He played in 183 consecutive games before suffering a broken arm at the New York Giants on November 25, 1979. Houston was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

1991 — Running Back Earl Campbell (1978-84)

Perhaps the most recognizable Oiler, Campbell has a monopoly on the Oilers rushing record book. Campbell, fresh off a Heisman Trophy campaign at the University of Texas, was the top pick in the 1978 NFL Draft and dazzled his audience from the outset. He set a single-season club record with a league-leading 1,450 yards his rookie season. Campbell followed that performance with 1,697 yards in 1979 and an astounding 1,934 yards in 1980. Both those totals led the NFL and the latter was second only to O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. Campbell was selected to five Pro Bowls (1978-81, 1983) and retired as the NFL's seventh all-time leading rusher (9,407). He also holds Oilers records for most career yards (8,574), most career attempts (1,979), most touchdown runs (73) and most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (5). He finished his career in New Orleans. In addition, Campbell is one of just four people officially designated a Texas Legend by the Texas State Legislature. The others are Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin. Campbell is the only designee this century. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

1996 — Wide Receiver Charlie Joiner (1969-72)

Joiner played 18 seasons in the NFL, his first four with the Oilers. One of the league's most prolific receivers, he amassed 750 career receptions for 12,146 yards and 65 touchdowns. Joiner caught 82 of those passes as an Oiler, totaling 1,480 yards and 12 touchdowns. He paced the squad with 681 yards and seven touchdown grabs in 1971.

Joiner was traded to Cincinnati in 1972, then moved on to San Diego in 1976, where he flourished in the Chargers' wide-open passing attack until 1986. Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996, then ranking fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yardage on the NFL's all-time list.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

In the 38-year history of the Oilers/Titans franchise, only four players have had the distinction of having their jersey number retired — Jim Norton (No. 43); Elvin Bethea (No. 65); Earl Campbell (No. 34); and Mike Munchak (No. 63).

Norton played nine seasons for the Oilers (1960-68) as a safety and as a punter, establishing team records at both positions. As a rookie from the University of Idaho, Norton was a member of the Oilers' 1960 AFL Championship team. A four-time league all-star, he holds the club record for most interceptions in a career with 45. Also an accomplished punter, Norton is tops in club history with 519 career punts for a 42.3-yard career average and a long kick of 79 yards (11/22/64 vs. Kansas City).

Bethea joined the Oilers in 1968 after an outstanding career at North Carolina A&T. He started at defensive end in the 1968 season opener and didn't miss a game until breaking his arm in November, 1977. That streak of 135 consecutive games played stands third in team history. An eight-time Pro Bowler (1970, 1972-76, 1978-80), Bethea currently holds the Oiler record for most seasons played (16, 1968-83), while his 210 games played (1968-83) stands second. Bethea led the team in quarterback sacks six times, including a career-best mark of 17 in 1973. The Oilers honored him with an "Elvin Bethea Appreciation Night" on August 4, 1983.

63

Campbell, the Oilers' all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was honored by having his number retired at ceremonies on August 13, 1987. His numerous gridiron exploits are chronicled in the Hall of Fame section.

65

Munchak joined the Oilers as a first-round draft pick in 1982 out of Penn State. He was the first offensive lineman selected in the draft and the eighth overall selection. Munchak won the starting left guard position as a rookie and went on to play in 12 campaigns (1982-93) and 159 games (156 starts) for the Oilers. He is tied for third on the team's all-time list for seasons played and ranks fifth in games played. Munchak became a fixture on an offensive line that helped the Oilers to seven consecutive playoff appearances (1987-93). One of the premier guards in the National Football League, Munchak was selected to NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1980s and was chosen in 1989 to Oilers' 30th Anniversary "Dream Team." He ranks second in club annals with nine Pro Bowl selections, seven as a starter. Munchak announced his retirement on July 21, 1994, and on the same day, K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr. announced that jersey No. 63 would be retired on "Mike Munchak Appreciation Day" on November 6, 1994.

TEAM UNIFORM HISTORY

The Oilers/Titans uniforms have been through several changes since the team's inception in 1960. The original Oilers helmet, circa 1960, was blue with a white stripe down the middle. The oil derrick logo was also white. Although the derrick itself has remained, many subtle changes have been made to the helmets in the past 39 seasons. In 1964, two red stripes were added to the white striping on top of the helmet. Two years later, the helmet color was changed to silver with red and blue striping. The derrick was changed to blue with a red outline and white background.

In 1972, the helmet color was switched back to blue, with red and white striping. The derrick was changed to white with a red outline. Three years later, the helmet color was changed to its familiar white with red and blue striping. The derrick was then switched to blue with a red outline. The helmets boasted a gray facemask.

In 1983, the facemask was switched to red. The Oilers have added their Tennessee logo to the back of the helmet since their relocation to Nashville.

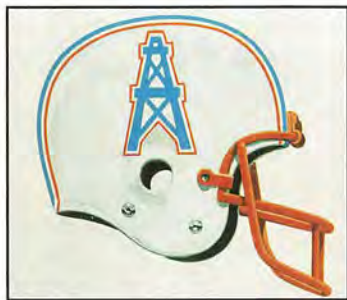

When the Oilers became the Tennessee Titans in 1999, they took on a new, modern-day look that pleased the fans of Tennessee. The team's logo features the fire of the Titans and exemplifies the characteristics of power, strength, knowledge and excellence. The three stars represent the state of Tennessee. The color scheme – Columbia blue, navy and red with an accent of silver retained a link to the team's past, while providing a sleek look that brought the organization into the 21st century.

In 1972, the Oilers donned blue helmets.

In 1975, the Oilers helmet was switched to the familiar white.

The Oilers switched their facemask to red in 1983.

The Titans primary logo (above) features the fire of the Titans. The three stars represent the state of Tennessee. The secondary sword logo (left) will be worn as a patch on the shoulder pads of players' jerseys.

February 8—Former New Orleans and New York Jets coach Ed Biles joins Oilers as defensive assistant.
March 7—O.A. "Bum" Phillips, a veteran Texas high school and college coach who was with Sid Gillman at San Diego, is hired by Oilers as defensive coordinator.
August 28—Oiler T John Matuszak tries to jump his contract and sign with World Football League Houston Texans. Oilers obtain temporary restraining order and present it to Matuszak at Texans' game with New York Stars. Matuszak is put on inactive list until trial.
September 5—Oilers and WFL Texans meet in court over John Matuszak dispute.
September 9—State District Judge Arthur Leshner grants temporary injunction against John Matuszak playing for any other team than Oilers until further court hearings. Matuszak remains on inactive list.
September 15—Oilers open regular season with 21-14 win over San Diego, Houston's first regular season home victory since October 1, 1972.
October 22—Oilers trade John Matuszak and No. 3 draft choice to Kansas City for Curley Culp and draft choice, ending court battle.
December 15—Oilers defeat Cleveland for first time in history, 28-24, and complete a 7-7 season, the best in Houston since 1968.

1975

January 25—O.A. "Bum" Phillips named Oilers head coach by Sid Gillman, who says he will remain in single role as general manager.

February 14—Sid Gillman leaves Oilers as general manager by mutual consent with owner "Bud" Adams. Bum Phillips adds title of general manager to head coaching duties.

September 21—Oilers open 1975 NFL season with 7-0 win over New England Patriots. Only TD was fumble return for score by Oilers' Willie Germany in first quarter.

October 12—Houston scores its first win in history at Cleveland with 40-10 triumph.

October 19—Oilers come from behind to defeat Washington 13-10 in Astrodom for first win ever over NFC team.

November 16—Oilers get 20-19 win over Miami as Billy Johnson ties all-time pro record for return TDs in one season (4).

December 21—Oilers close out finest season since 1962 with 21-10 win over Cleveland, giving Bum Phillips a 10-4-0 record in his first year as a head coach. Oilers set a new home attendance record, averaging 48,000 in seven home games.

1976

February 10—Wade Phillips, son of Head Coach Bum Phillips, named to Oiler coaching staff as LB coach. Phillips had been an assistant at University of Kansas.

April 1—Oilers lose Fred Hoaglin, Mark Cotney and Jesse O'Neal in NFL expansion draft.

April 2—Oilers trade QB Lynn Dickey to Green Bay for QB John Hadl, CB Ken Ellis, draft choices and cash.

1977

January 14—Head Coach and General Manager Bum Phillips announces the appointment of Ken Shipp as offensive coordinator with King Hill becoming receiver coach and the appointment of Joe Bugel as offensive line coach.

February 2—Pat Pepler is named assistant general manager.

October 9—Oilers march into first place in the AFC Central Division after whipping Pittsburgh 27-10 at the Astrodom, but lose Dan Pastorini to an ankle and back injury.

November 13—Oakland holds off Oilers 34-29 as Houston DE Elvin Bethea suffers a broken arm after playing in 135 consecutive games, a team record.

1978

January 7—Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., announces the appointment of Ladd K. Herzeg as Senior Vice-President and Chief Administrative Officer of the Houston Oilers.

January 24—Curley Culp, Ken Burrough, Billy Johnson and Robert Brazile play for AFC on Pro Bowl team.

April 15—Oilers announce a long-term contract with Texas State Network to air Oiler games.

April 24—Oilers trade three draft picks and TE Jimmie Giles to Tampa Bay for rights to 1978 number one draft selection in order to choose Texas All-America and Heisman Trophy winner Earl Campbell.

October 23—Houston ends Pittsburgh's seven-game win streak with Monday night victory over the Steelers, 21-17. It marks Houston's first win ever on Monday Night Football.

November 12—Houston comes from 23-0 deficit to capture 26-23 win over New England Patriots.

November 20—Earl Campbell rushes for four touchdowns against Miami Dolphins in Oilers' 35-30 victory. Campbell's two Monday night appearances net him 7 of his 13 season TDs.

November 26—Earl Campbell gains 100 yards rushing vs. Cincinnati before home crowd to tie NFL record for most 100-yard games by a rookie — 7 (ties Franco Harris and Don Woods). Also breaks Oiler single season records for most yards rushing (Hoyle Granger, 1,194 yards in 1967) and most rushing attempts (Charlie Tolar, 224 yards in 1962).

December 10—Houston captures 17-12 decision over New Orleans Saints to clinch berth in AFC Wild Card game versus Miami.

December 24—Houston wins first playoff game since 1961 by defeating Miami 17-9 in the Orange Bowl.

December 31—Oilers continue playoff march with 31-14 win against New England before 61,297 chilled fans in Foxboro, Mass.

1979

January 7—Houston playoff dreams end as Pittsburgh takes 34-5 victory in AFC Championship Game. Oilers welcomed by 50,000 loyal fans in the Astrodom as radio station KILT sponsors homecoming.

January 30—Earl Campbell, Elvin Bethea, Robert Brazile and Curley Culp represent Houston in the Pro Bowl in Los Angeles.

August 3—Oiler T Greg Sampson undergoes brain surgery which signals the end to a promising career.

December 10—Before national television audience, Houston defeats division nemesis Pittsburgh 20-17.

giving Oilers spot in 1979 playoffs.

December 17—Several Oilers lock up individual titles: Earl Campbell is NFL rushing champion for the second consecutive year; Mike Reinfeldt captures the crown for most interceptions in NFL with 12; Toni Fritsch is the most accurate field goal kicker, connecting on 21-25 attempts; and Jesse Baker leads the AFC in QB sacks with 15 1/2.

December 23—In first playoff game played in Houston since 1962, Oilers defeat Denver Broncos 13-7. Key offensive players Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini and Ken Burrough are all injured, and their status for the following game versus San Diego is questionable.

December 29—Oilers defeat San Diego 17-14 without injured Earl Campbell, Dan Pastorini and Ken Burrough. Backup QB Gifford Nielsen plays conservative offense as Rob Carpenter, who was injured earlier in the week and was on crutches the night before the game, gains 67 yards rushing in his best effort of the season. The big star of the game is S Vernon Perry as he intercepts an NFL-record four passes in a playoff game.

January 6—In a rematch of the 1978 AFC Championship Game, the Steelers win 27-13 in a game that saw a controversial call keep Mike Renfro from scoring what would have been tying score late in third quarter.

January 7—In the wee hours of the morning, the Oilers return from Pittsburgh to an excited throng of 70,000 people at the Astrodome.

January 28—Six Oilers represent Houston in the Pro Bowl: RB Earl Campbell, T Leon Gray, PK Toni Fritsch, LB Robert Brazile, S Mike Reinfeldt and DE Elvin Bethea.

September 15—Before the largest stadium crowd to ever witness an Oilers' game (80,243), Houston defeats the Browns in Cleveland Stadium 16-7. The game was also televised before a national audience on Monday Night Football.

October 14—Oilers acquire All-Pro TE Dave Casper from Oakland for undisclosed draft picks.

October 19—Earl Campbell becomes only the second RB in the history of the Oiler franchise to rush for over 200 yards in a single game when he leads the Oilers to a 21-14 triumph over Tampa Bay with 206 yards. Club rushing record for single game is 216 yards by Billy Cannon (Dec. 10, 1961 vs. New York Titans).

October 26—Earl Campbell ties NFL record for most consecutive 200-yard games rushing (two) with 202 yards vs. Cincinnati in the Astrodome. Campbell now shares record with O.J. Simpson (Buffalo, 1973, 1976). Oilers defeat Bengals 23-3.

December 4—Houston's defense shuts out the Pittsburgh Steelers 6-0. Toni Fritsch provides all the points the Oilers need with two field goals. This marked the third evening prime-time win of the season for the Oilers as the game was played in the Astrodome before a sellout crowd and a national television audience. It marked the first shutout registered by the Oilers since a 47-0 win over the Chicago Bears. (November 6, 1977).

December 21—Oilers clinch third playoff spot in as many years with 20-16 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the Astrodome. Earl Campbell sets NFL record by rushing for over 200 yards in single game four times in one season. He finishes season with 1,934 yards, second highest total in NFL history behind O.J. Simpson's 2,003 yards in 1973. The Oilers must wait until the final game of the season to see who their playoff opponent will be, as their 11-5 record equals that of division foe Cleveland, but Oilers become Wild Card participant due to tie-breaker procedures.

December 28—Oilers season comes to an end with disappointing AFC Wild Card loss at the hands of the eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders. The loss marks the third consecutive year that the Oilers have been eliminated from the playoff picture by the eventual Super Bowl champions (Pittsburgh Steelers in both 1978 and 1979).

December 31—K.S. "Bud" Adams Jr., relieves Bum Phillips of his duties as Head Coach and General Manager. Ladd K. Herzog is promoted from post of Senior Vice-President/Chief Administrative Officer to the position of Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the Oilers.

1981

January 3—Oilers announce the selection of Ed Biles as their new head coach. Biles had been Oilers' defensive coordinator since 1975.

February 8—Dick Nolan, former Head Coach for the New Orleans Saints and the San Francisco 49ers, is named defensive coordinator.

February 15—Mike Holovak is named as Assistant General Manager by the Oilers.

February 1—Executive Vice-President/General Manager Ladd K. Herzog announces his resignation.

February 2—The Oilers announce the promotion of Mike Holovak to General Manager, replacing Ladd Herzog. Also, under NFL's new "Plan B" free agency, 21 Oilers are left unprotected while 37 are protected.

February 22—The Oilers name Kevin Gilbride to the post of Quarterbacks Coach. He joins the club after serving as Offensive Coordinator at East Carolina.

April 1—The Oilers end up losing 15 players and signing seven under the NFL's first "Plan B" free agency system.

April 7—The Oilers sign QB Warren Moon to a new long-term contract.

September 24—Despite a sellout crowd in the first game in the newly-expanded Astrodome, the Oilers lose to the Buffalo Bills, 47-41 in OT.

October 1—The Oilers defeat the Miami Dolphins 39-7 as QB Warren Moon completes a career-best 82.6% of his passes (19/23). In addition, Houston's defense holds Dolphin QB Dan Marino to his worst game as a starter (11/29, 103 yds.).

October 22—The Oilers record the ninth shutout in club history and their first in nine years (spanning 132 games) with a 27-0 whitewash of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Pittsburgh manages just 132 total yards, the fewest yards allowed by Houston in 12 seasons.

December 3—The Oilers win at Pittsburgh 23-16 despite a blizzard and windchill temperatures of -20 degrees. RB Lorenzo White's one-yard run with 21 seconds remaining wins it as the Oilers claim sole possession of first place after the season's 13th game, the latest the team has been in first place in a season since 1967.

December 10—The Oilers honor their 30th Anniversary "Dream Team" while defeating the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 20-17.

December 20—G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon and G Mike Munchak are named starters for the February 4 Pro Bowl.

December 23—In a regular season finale battle for the AFC Central Division title, the Oilers lose to the Cleveland Browns 24-20 on RB Kevin Mack's TD with 39 seconds left. The Oilers fall short after battling back from a 17-0 deficit as QB Warren Moon establishes personal bests for attempts (51), completions (32) and yards (414, most since George Blanda's 418 in 1961). Oilers set all-time single season attendance record with 451,027 fans, eclipsing 411,652 in 1978.

December 31—In an AFC Wild Card playoff game, the Oilers lose a 26-23 OT decision to the Pittsburgh Steelers as PK Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal. Houston WR Ernest Givins catches 11 passes for 136 yards and two TDs.

January 6—Jerry Glanville leaves his position as Oilers' head coach by "mutual agreement."

January 30—The Oilers extend the contract of Executive Vice President/General Manager Mike Holovac. In addition, the team names former LBs Coach Floyd Reese to the newly-created position of Assistant General Manager and promotes Quarterbacks Coach Kevin Gilbride to Offensive Coordinator. Also, the team announces the signing of a multi-year contract that allows KTRH-AM/KLOL-FM to broadcast all Oiler football games beginning in 1990.

March 15—The Oilers announce that Raycom Sports Network has agreed to a multi-year contract to televise Oiler preseason games plus a weekly wrap-up show.

September 23—The Oilers win their 1990 home opener 24-10 over the Indianapolis Colts as QB Warren Moon becomes the all-time leading passer in club history. Moon throws for 308 yards (plus 3 TDs) to surpass George Blanda's team record of 19,149 yards. The record fell on a third quarter seven-yard pass to WR Haywood Jeffries. WR Drew Hill catches ten passes for 123 yards to help key the victory.

September 30—The Oilers capture their first road win of the season, defeating the Chargers 17-7 as QB Warren Moon throws for 355 yards, and WR Drew Hill records his 50th career touchdown. Moon's 27 completions allows him to pass Dan Pastorini's club record of 1,426.

October 14—QB Warren Moon passes for 369 yards and a career-best five TDs as the Oilers hammer the Cincinnati Bengals 48-17. Moon thus becomes the first player in pro football history to throw for over 20,000 yards in two different leagues (21,228 in Canadian Football League).

December 2—Despite losing 13-10 in overtime at Seattle, QB Warren Moon's 232 passing yards allow him to break his own single-season club passing record of 3,631 yards (set in 1989).

December 9—The Oilers shatter several team records while drubbing Cleveland 58-14. Included among the records set are most points in a game, in a quarter (31) and in a half (45). RB Lorenzo White ties a club mark with four rushing touchdowns, the first time that's been accomplished in the NFL in two years.

December 16—The Oilers win a key road game, beating Kansas City 27-10 at Arrowhead Stadium. QB Warren Moon again supplies the big news, completing 27-of-45 passes for 527 yards. That represents the second-best single-game passing performance in NFL history. The record belongs to the Rams' Norm Van Brocklin, who threw for 554 yards against the New York Yanks on September 28, 1951. Moon had an opportunity to break the record but declined to do so based on the Oilers' comfortable lead. Almost overshadowed by Moon's effort was WR Haywood Jeffries catching nine balls for 245 yards (including 87-yard TD), which marked the second best receiving day in Oiler history. Charles Hennigan had 272 receiving yards versus the Patriots on October 13, 1961.

December 19—Six Oilers are named to the AFC squad for the February 3 Pro Bowl. The six include starters G Bruce Matthews, QB Warren Moon and G Mike Munchak, plus reserves DT Ray Childress, WR Ernest Givins and WR Drew Hill.

December 23—The Oilers lose an opportunity to cement their grasp on first place in the AFC Central Division by losing at Cincinnati 40-20. Additionally, QB Warren Moon is lost for the remainder of the season after suffering an open dislocation of his throwing thumb.

December 29—Oiler Owner/President K.S. "Bud" Adams and San Antonio Mayor Lila Cockrell jointly announce a tentative agreement for the Oilers to hold their annual summer training camp in San Antonio. Also, it is announced that the Oilers will serve as the host team for preseason games in San Antonio's Alamodome when that facility is completed in 1993.

December 30—Led by backup QB Cody Carlson, the Oilers earn a Wild Card playoff berth by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 34-14 in the Astrodome. Carlson completes 22 of 29 passes for 247 yards and three TDs. With the victory, the Oilers end up in a three-way tie for first place with Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in the AFC Central.

1991

January 6—The Oilers' 1990 season comes to a close as they are eliminated from the playoffs by the Cincinnati Bengals. Houston loses at Riverfront Stadium 41-14 in an AFC Wild Card game.

May 17—The Oilers and the City of San Antonio formally sign six-year contract which will allow the Oilers to hold training camp there. Trinity University is chosen as the host school.

September 16—In a pre-game ceremony, Earl Campbell receives his Hall of Fame ring from Hall Executive Director Pete Elliott. In the game that follows, the Oilers defeat Kansas City 17-7 to signal the first 3-0 start in franchise history.

October 13—In a 23-20 victory over the Jets at Giants Stadium, WR Haywood Jeffries ties Charlie Hennigan's 30-year-old team record for receptions in a game with 13 (186 yards). QB Warren Moon completes 35-of-50 passes for 423 yards, which is the fifth-best total in team annals. Also, WR Drew Hill surpasses Hennigan's 410 catches to become the all-time leading receiver in Oiler history.

November 3—Despite a 16-13 OT loss at Washington, WR Drew Hill moves past WR Ken Burrough's 6,907 receiving yards to become the Oilers' all-time leader in that category.

November 10—QB Warren Moon establishes career highs for completions (41) and attempts (56) as he throws for 432 yards, which is fourth best in team history, in Oilers' 26-23 OT victory over Dallas. Moon also passes Fran Tarkenton's 47,003 yards and moves into second place behind Ron Lancaster on all-time professional passing yards chart.

December 8—The Oilers defeat the Steelers 31-6 in the Astrodome as Houston captures its first-ever undisputed AFC Central Division championship. QB Warren Moon throws for 254 yards and becomes just the third QB in NFL history (Miami's Dan Marino, San Diego's Dan Fouts) to have back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons.

December 15—QB Warren Moon surpasses Dan Marino's NFL record (378 in 1986) for completions in a season as the Oilers beat the Browns 17-14.

December 18—Eight Oilers (tied NFL-best), including a league-high six starters are named to the AFC team for the February 2 Pro Bowl. The six starters include CB Cris Dishman, DE William Fuller, WR Haywood Jeffries, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. DT Ray Childress and QB Warren Moon are also named to the squad although Childress was eventually unable to play because of a back/rib injury.

December 21—WR Haywood Jeffries becomes just the fifth player in NFL history to record 100 receptions in a single season despite the Oilers' 24-20 road loss to the Giants. Coupled with Drew Hill's 90 catches, that pair's 190 represents the most receptions by two teammates in one season in league annals. In addition, QB Warren Moon eclipses Dan Marino's NFL record (623 in 1986) for attempts in a season. DE William Fuller registers his 15th sack of the season and thus becomes the first Oiler ever to lead the conference in that category.

December 29—The Oilers defeat the New York Jets 17-10 in an AFC Wild Card playoff game before 61,485 fans in the Astrodome. S Bubba McDowell intercepts two key passes inside the Oiler five-yard line to preserve the win.

January 4—After leading for most of the game, the Oilers end up losing a heartbreaking 26-24 decision to the Denver Broncos in an AFC Divisional Playoff game in front of 75,301 fans at Mile High Stadium. PK David Treadwell's 28-yard field goal with 16 seconds left in the game proves to be the deciding points. The loss mars a great performance by Oiler QB Warren Moon, who completes 75% of his passes (27 of 36) for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

March 6—The Oilers name Steve Underwood as General Counsel. Underwood joins the Oilers from the Houston firm of Caldwell and Hurst where he has handled most of the team's legal work since 1977.

August 1—The Oilers defeat the Dallas Cowboys 34-23 in the American Bowl in Tokyo, Japan, which marks Houston's first game outside of the United States.

August 31—The Oilers and QB Warren Moon reach agreement on a new multi-year contract that includes a settlement of a controversial escalator clause.

September 29—The Oilers sign free agent WR Webster Slaughter to a two-year contract. Slaughter had been one of four players who were declared free agents by a Minneapolis judge on September 24.

October 11—In a 38-24 win at Cincinnati, QB Warren Moon ties a personal best with five TD passes to eclipse George Blanda's team record for career touchdown passes (165, Moon now has 169). Also, WR Haywood Jeffries catches three TD passes to tie the franchise record, and RB Lorenzo White rushes for a career-best 149 yards.

October 18—QB Warren Moon becomes the leading passer in professional football history by surpassing Ron Lancaster's 50,535 yards (in 19 years). After the Oilers' heartbreaking 27-21 loss at Denver, Moon now has 50,589 yards. Moon's total, accumulated in less than 15 seasons, includes 21,228 yards in the CFL and 29,361 yards in the NFL.

November 15—In Houston's 17-13 win at Minnesota, QB Warren Moon suffers a fractured upper left arm on a fourth quarter hit by Viking S Vencie Glenn and misses the next five games. Despite the injury, Moon becomes just the 14th NFL QB to surpass 30,000 passing yards as he accomplishes that faster (125 games) than any player in league history except for Miami's Dan Marino (114 games).

November 26—Subbing for the injured Warren Moon, QB Cody Carlson throws for a career-high 338 yards as the Oilers defeat the Lions 24-21 on Thanksgiving Day in Detroit.

December 11—After being diagnosed with kidney cancer, Offensive Coordinator Kevin Gilbride undergoes surgery for the removal of his cancerous kidney. He misses two games as Receivers Coach Chris Palmer and injured QB Warren Moon help to handle Gilbride's game day responsibilities.

December 23—An NFL-best nine Oilers earn Pro Bowl honors with four players designated as starters for the February 7 game. The starters include WR Haywood Jeffires, C Bruce Matthews, G Mike Munchak and LB Al Smith. The Houston reserves feature DT Ray Childress, WR Curtis Duncan, WR Ernest Givins, QB Warren Moon and RB Lorenzo White. The inclusion of Jeffires, Givins and Duncan represents the first time ever that three receivers from the same team have been designated as Pro Bowlers.

December 20—Shortly after their exciting, come-from-behind 17-14 win at Cleveland, the Oilers learn that they have clinched a playoff berth for the sixth straight season. That represents the longest current post-season streak in the NFL.

December 27—As Houston routs Buffalo 27-3 in the regular season finale, WR Haywood Jeffires catches six passes to finish with 90 receptions. He thus leads the AFC in that category for the third straight season, becoming only the second player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat.

January 3—The Oilers lose a 41-38 OT decision at Buffalo in an AFC Wild Card playoff game. QB Warren Moon completes 36 of 50 passes for 371 yards and four first-half touchdowns.

January 4—The Oilers announce that they will not offer new contracts to Defensive Coordinator Jim Eddy and Defensive Backs Coach Pat Thomas.

January 29—The Oilers name Buddy Ryan as the team's defensive coordinator.

July 2—NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue rules in a dispute between the Oilers and Redskins. Tagliabue completes a trade which sends Washington LB Wilber Marshall to Houston in exchange for the Oilers' third-round draft choice in 1994 and their fifth-round selection in 1995.

November 14—WR Haywood Jeffires ties a team record with three touchdown receptions and QB Warren Moon throws four TD passes in just over two quarters of playing time as the Oilers rout the Bengals 38-3 at Riverfront Stadium. RB Gary Brown earns AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors by rushing for 166 yards in his first NFL start, which marks the most yards by an Oiler back in 12 years.

November 21—RB Gary Brown explodes for 194 rushing yards to lead Houston to its fifth consecutive win, a 27-20 victory at Cleveland. Brown's rushing total is the highest by any AFC back in three years and the most by an Oiler in 13 years. His back-to-back running sum of 360 yards is also the team's best in 13 seasons. Brown becomes the first NFL back in ten years to gain over 100 yards in his first two career starts. Also, S Marcus Robertson ties a team record by becoming the first Oiler in 22 years to get three interceptions in a game.

November 28—In the Oilers' 23-3 AstroDome victory over the Steelers, WR Ernest Givins passes Drew Hill's 480 catches to become Houston's all-time leading receiver.

December 5—As Houston captures its seventh straight win with a 33-17 home decision over Atlanta, the Oilers' defense forces seven turnovers (including a team record-tying six interceptions) for its highest such total in 16 years.

December 14—Oiler DT Jeff Alm commits suicide following the death of his best friend in a traffic accident. The Oilers hold a memorial service for their teammate the following day.

December 19—The Oilers clinch their second outright AFC Central Division championship with a 26-17 win over the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. Houston thus cements a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive season, the longest current streak in the NFL. The Oilers also become just the second team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to go undefeated within the AFC's Central Division (also 1975 Steelers). Against Pittsburgh, PK Al Del Greco surpasses the team record of 115 points in a single season.

December 28—G Mike Munchak establishes an Oiler record by being named to the Pro Bowl for the ninth time (Elvin Bethea had eight appearances).

January 2—The Oilers close the regular season with their club record 11th consecutive win, a 24-0 shutout of the Jets in the Astrodome. The winning streak is the longest in the NFL in nine years as the Oilers become just the fifth team in league history to close a season with 11 straight victories. The Oilers also set a franchise record with 12 wins for the season and go undefeated in both November and December for just the third time ever. Amazingly, RB Gary Brown finished with 1,002 yards in just eight starts.

January 27—The Oilers promote Assistant General Manager Floyd Reese to the position of Executive Vice-President/General Manager. Reese succeeds Mike Holovak, who assumes the title of Vice-President/Player Personnel and Scouting.

February 8—The Oilers promote Kevin Gilbride to Assistant Head Coach/Offense and name Dick Coury as the team's Offensive Coordinator.

February 9—Houston names Jeff Fisher as its new Defensive Coordinator, replacing Buddy Ryan, who left the Oilers to become General Manager/Head Coach of the Arizona Cardinals.

April 13—The Minnesota Vikings announce that they have reached an agreement to acquire QB Warren Moon from the Oilers in exchange for draft choices.

OVERTIME RESULTS

December 23, 1962 - Dallas 20, at Houston 17: Texans win the toss but elect to kick. Each team gets three cracks at winning the game in the first overtime before K Tommy Brooker's championship-winning 25-yard field goal at 12:06 of the second OT.

October 30, 1977 - at Cincinnati 13, Houston 10: Bengals win the toss. QB Ken Anderson's 17-yard completion to WR Billy Brooks is the long play prior to K Chris Bahr's winning 22-yard field goal at 5:51 of OT.

September 23, 1979 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Oilers win the toss. On opening series, Bengals force Cliff Parsley punt. Cincinnati drives to Oilers' 14-yard line, but K Chris Bahr misses a 32-yard field goal attempt. Houston again has to punt on its ensuing series. The Oiler defense then forces a punt by Bengals' Pat McNally. Houston takes over on the Cincinnati 42. RB Earl Campbell's 15-yard run is the long play prior to K Toni Fritsch's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:28 of OT.

October 28, 1979 - at Houston 27, N.Y. Jets 24: Oilers win the toss. QB Dan Pastorini's 22-yard completion to FB Rob Carpenter is the long play as Oilers drive 58 yards. K Toni Fritsch kicks the winning 35-yard field goal at 5:10 of OT.

November 23, 1980 - at N.Y. Jets 31, Houston 28: Jets win the toss. A personal foul on Houston's Guido Merkens on the kickoff gives New York possession at the Jets' 40-yard line. QB Richard Todd's 17-yard screen pass to RB Bobby Harper is the long play prior to K Pat Leahy's winning 38-yard field goal at 3:58 of OT.

September 4, 1983 - Green Bay 41, at Houston 38: Packers win the toss. RB Eddie Lee Ivery's 12-yard run is the long play as Packers drive 59 yards. K Jan Stenerud kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 5:55 of OT.

October 23, 1983 - Kansas City 13, at Houston 10: Chiefs win the toss. QB Bill Kenney's 20-yard completion to WR Stephone Paige is the long play as Chiefs drive 60 yards. K Nick Lowery kicks the winning 41-yard field goal at 7:41 of OT.

October 30, 1983 - at Cleveland 25, Houston 19: Oilers win the toss. Browns' defense forces a John James punt. Houston defense does the same to Cleveland as Jeff Gossett punts on ensuing series. Oiler QB Gifford Nielsen's pass is intercepted by Cleveland S Mike Whitwell and returned 15 yards to the Houston 20-yard line. On the next play, RB Boyce Green scores a touchdown on a 20-yard run at 6:34 of OT.

December 2, 1984 - at Houston 23, Pittsburgh 20: Oilers win the toss. QB Warren Moon's 19-yard completion to WR Steve Bryant is the long play as Oilers drive 63 yards. K Joe Cooper kicks the winning 30-yard field goal at 5:53 of OT.

September 28, 1986 - Pittsburgh 22, at Houston 16: Oilers win the toss. Steelers' defense forces a Lee Johnson punt that is returned 41 yards to the Oilers' 15-yard line by Pittsburgh's Rick Woods. Two plays later, RB Walter Abercrombie runs three yards for winning touchdown at 2:35 of OT.

November 30, 1986 - at Cleveland 13, Houston 10: Oilers win the toss but elect to kickoff (18-25 MPH winds). Oilers' defense forces a Jeff Gossett punt. QB Oliver Luck, replacing an injured Warren Moon, leads the Oilers to the Cleveland 31-yard line, but then is intercepted by CB Frank Minnifield at the Browns' 21. Again Houston's defense puts the Browns in a punting situation. Once again, Minnifield picks off a Luck pass, returning it to the Oilers' 37. FB Kevin Mack's seven-yard run and QB Bernie Kosar's seven-yard pass to WR Brian Brennan are the long plays prior to K Mark Moseley's winning 29-yard field goal at 14:44 of OT.

*January 3, 1988 - at Houston 23, Seattle 20: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Ruben Rodriguez punt. QB Warren Moon's 15-yard pass to WR Drew Hill is the long play as the Oilers drive 61 yards. K Tony Zendejas kicks the winning 42-yard field goal at 8:05 of OT.

September 4, 1988 - Houston 17, at Indianapolis 14: Colts win the toss. On the opening series, QB Gary Hogeboom completes a screen pass to RB Eric Dickerson, but Oiler LB John Grimsley forces a fumble which is recovered by LB Robert Lyles on the Colts' 42-yard line. QB Cody Carlson, subbing for injured Warren Moon, completes a 21-yard pass to WR Ernest Givins for the long play prior to K Tony Zendejas' 35-yard field goal at 3:51 of OT.

September 24, 1989 - Buffalo 47, at Houston 41: Oilers win the toss. Houston takes over on its own 19-yard line and advances to the Buffalo 20 thanks to QB Warren Moon's 32-yard completion to FB Alonzo Highsmith, plus a 17-yard run by Moon and an 11-yarder by Highsmith. K Tony Zendejas attempts a 37-yard field goal, but it is wide left. The Bills assume possession on their own 20 and move 80 yards in seven plays. A 21-yard QB Jim Kelly-to-TE Pete Metzelaars pass precedes the game-winning 28-yard TD catch by WR Andre Reed at 8:42 of OT.

*December 31, 1989 - Pittsburgh 26, at Houston 23: Steelers win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Harry Newsome punt as Houston takes over on its own 45-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White fumbles on the first play as CB Rod Woodson recovers for the Steelers on the Houston 46. RB Merrill Hoge's 11-yard run helps Pittsburgh advance to the Oiler 33 before Gary Anderson kicks a 50-yard field goal (his 4th of the game) to win the game at 3:26 of OT.

December 2, 1990 - at Seattle 13, Houston 10: Seahawks win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Rick Donnelly punt as Houston takes over on its own 23-yard line. Oiler WR Bernard Ford fumbles on the first play as LB David Wyman recovers for the Seahawks on the Houston 27. Seattle FB John L. Williams rushes twice for a total of three yards before Norm Johnson kicks a 42-yard field goal to win the game at 4:25 of OT.

November 3, 1991 - at Washington 16, Houston 13: Redskins win the toss. Oilers' defense forces a Kelly Goodburn punt as Houston takes over on its own 31-yard line. Oiler QB Warren Moon is intercepted on the second play by CB Darrell Green with Washington taking over on Houston's 33. RB Earnest Byner carries three times for a total of nine yards before Chip Lohmiller kicks a 41-yard field goal to win the game at 4:01 of OT.

November 10, 1991 - at Houston 26, Dallas 23: Oilers win the toss. Cowboys' defense forces a Greg Montgomery punt as Dallas takes over on its own 24-yard line. The Cowboys move to the Oiler 24-yard line where they have a first down following a Houston holding penalty. Dallas RB Emmitt Smith gains seven yards but fumbles after a hit by LB Lamar Lathon, with Oiler S Bo Orlando recovering at the Houston 15. The Oilers then embark on an 11-play, 80-yard drive in which QB Warren Moon completes all seven of his passes for 70 yards. On second down, K Al Del Greco kicks a 23-yard field goal at 14:31 of OT.

September 20, 1992 - at Houston 23, Kansas City 20: Chiefs win the toss. On the third play of OT, Kansas City WR J.J. Birden fumbles after a hit by Houston CB Kris Dishman with DT Doug Smith recovering the ball at the Chief's 23-yard line. Oiler RB Lorenzo White runs once for two yards before K Al Del Greco boots the game-winning 39-yard field goal at 1:55 of OT.

*January 3, 1993 - at Buffalo 41, Houston 38: Oilers win the toss. On third-and-three from Houston's 27-yard line, QB Warren Moon is intercepted by Buffalo CB Nate Odomes, who returns the ball to the Oiler 35. On the return, Houston WR Haywood Jeffries is penalized for a face mask infraction, which moves the ball to the Oilers' 20. After a pair of Kenneth Davis runs net six yards, K Steve Christie kicks a 32-yard field goal to win the game at 3:06 of OT.

November 6, 1994 - Pittsburgh 12, at Houston 9: Steelers win the toss. Both teams exchange five punts before the Oilers gain possession on their 12-yard line with 4:30 left in the extra period. On the first play from scrimmage, RB Gary Brown scoots up the middle for 8 yards before being hit by CB Rod Woodson. He fumbles and the Steelers take over at the Oilers 22-yard line. Two plays later, K Gary Anderson hits from 40 yards out for the winning score at 3:36 of OT.

October 8, 1995 - at Minnesota 23, Houston 17: Vikings win the toss. The Vikings move the ball to their 38-yard line but are forced to punt. Minnesota P Mike Saxon then pins the Oilers in at their 8-yard line with a 54-yard boot. On his third carry of overtime, RB Rodney Thomas scampers 27 yards to give the Oilers a first down at their 35. QB Will Furrer, who replaced Chris Chandler after he injured his shoulder while being sacked on the Oilers' last offensive series in the fourth quarter, is intercepted on his second pass attempt by CB Dewayne Washington (25-yard return). RB Robert Smith takes his third consecutive carry of OT 20 yards for the winning score with 7:10 gone in the extra stanza.

October 6, 1996 - Houston 30, at Cincinnati 27: Bengals win the toss. The Bengals go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Oilers the ball inside their own 20-yard line. On second down at the Oilers' 16-yard line, QB Chris Chandler connects with WR Willie Davis on a 37-yard pass to move into Cincinnati territory. Six plays later, K Al Del Greco hits from 49 yards out for the winning score at 4:22 of OT.

August 31, 1997 - at Tennessee 24, Oakland 21: Oilers win the toss. Oilers go three-and-out and are forced to punt, giving the Raiders the ball at their own 33-yard line. The Raiders also go three-and-out and punt the ball to the Oilers. Tennessee takes over the ball at its own 35-yard line. On second-and-eight, QB Steve McNair connects with Frank Wycheck for 21 yards to the Raiders 42-yard line. Again on second down, McNair finds Wycheck, this time for 10 yards to the Raiders 32-yard line. On the next play, McNair scrambles for an 11-yard gain. RB Eddie George gains six yards before Al Del Greco hits the game-winner from 33 yards away with 8:03 left on the clock in overtime. The win is the Oilers first since relocating to Tennessee from Houston.

September 7, 1997 - at Miami 16, Tennessee 13: Dolphins win the toss. The Oilers kick to Dolphin return man Irving Spikes, who returns the kickoff 48 yards to the Oilers 45-yard line. On second down, Dan Marino hits RB Bernie Parmalee for a 16-yard gain. Again on second down, Marino connects with Fred Barnett for a 9-yard gain. On the play, Oiler DB Tomur Barnes was flagged for an unnecessary roughness penalty which moved the ball to the Oilers 11-yard line. On the next play, Olindo Mare knocked home a 29-yard field goal with 12:45 remaining in overtime.

BAPTIST SPORTS PARK – BELLEVUE

The Titans conduct their 1999 training camp at the same facility that has served as their practice field and administrative offices over the last two years. It marks the first time since 1966 that the franchise has opted to hold training camp at their training facility instead of a college campus. The club held camp at Tennessee State University from 1997-98, but the late start to the 1999 NFL season (Sept. 12) presented potential conflicts in dorm room availability. The Titans move into their permanent training facility at MetroCenter following training camp.

Baptist Sports Park contains team locker rooms, meeting rooms, coaches' offices, a training room, weight room, and offices for much of the team's administrative staff. Rookies and first-year players were due to report to camp on July 27, veterans on July 31.

The Titans are conducting their 1999 training camp at the facility that has housed the players, coaches and much of the front office the last two years. The Bellevue branch has served as one of the club's three temporary locations in Nashville the last two years. The new training facility is due to open up at MetroCenter late this summer.

ADELPHIA COLISEUM

The Titans will be playing in the NFL's premier stadium in 1999. The 67,000-seat, open-air, natural-grass Adelphia Coliseum is located on 105 acres on the east bank of the Cumberland River overlooking downtown Nashville. It was built by HOK Sports Facilities Group of Kansas City, Mo, the same group that designed Jacksonville's Alltel Stadium, Miami's Joe Robbie Stadium, Charlotte's Ericsson Stadium, Baltimore's Camden Yards, and the Nashville Arena. The stadium will also be the home site for the Tennessee State University football squad.

Among the features:

- Open-air, natural grass
- 144 suites
- Club seating with heat & air-conditioning, spacious lounge area, high-quality food and beverage services, sitdown eating areas, closed circuit TV's and sound systems
- 60 concession stands throughout stadium
- Three locker rooms
- Two scoreboards with video screens located on north and south ends of stadium
- 4 suite elevators
- More than 2,000 trees planted within the 105 acres
- 7,500 parking spaces available

- 26 men's restrooms, 40 women's restrooms
- TifSport Bermuda sod, which grew for a year before being laid down in May. Each roll of sod weighed 2,000 pounds and was cut into 108-foot long, 42-inch wide strips that were 1.5 inches thick.
- Sophisticated field irrigation and drainage system
- State-of-the-art press box

A Key Player on the Titans' Team

When the Titans needed a strong foundation for the stadium and a new, modern practice facility, the choice was simple: Powell Building Group.

Powell's teamwork approach means working with the Titans to make sure projects are done on time and done right.

BAPTIST SPORTS PARK

On May 15, 1998, Titans owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., selected a 31-acre site at the MetroCenter complex in Nashville as the team's permanent practice location. Since that time, a beautiful multi-million dollar facility has been built by Nashville-based Powell Building Group on the property, located just north of downtown Nashville about five miles from the new stadium.

The 80,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art building contains lockers, weight rooms, meeting rooms and offices for coaches, players and administrative staff. The building also features an auditorium with seating for 125 people, as well as other meeting rooms.

The weight training center and rehabilitation treatment facility will set the model for all professional sports. Designed to exceed the standards of all previous training and practice facilities, the new Titans' complex will be the envy of professional training centers for decades.

The facility boasts three outdoor practice fields with natural grass plus an enclosed field with artificial turf. Logistically, each field is identical to the field in the team's new downtown stadium, from the 100-yard length to the geographic orientation. The longitudinal center of each field is 24 degrees west of north, just like the new stadium's field, enabling the Titans to practice in the same slanting sunlight they face on Sundays.

The site, selected from more than 60 sites reviewed, was purchased from MetroCenter properties. The new facility occupies a peninsula that joins into the lake across from the Fountain Square commercial development. Among the leading builders in middle Tennessee, Powell was chosen for its state-of-the-art construction planning and building techniques.

TITANS RADIO NETWORK

Fans across seven states can follow the Titans' run to the playoffs all season on the Tennessee Titans Radio Network and its Nashville flagship station, Groovin' Hits 104.5. The network, co-owned by Dick Broadcasting Co. and Capitol Radio Networks, enters 1999 with a new broadcast team and an even stronger group of radio stations.

Led by the first "Voice of the Titans," Mike Keith, Titans Radio will bring fans inside every game. Keith is no stranger to southeastern football fans, having covered University of Tennessee sports for more than 10 years at WIVK/WNOX, Knoxville. Keith will be joined by new color analyst Pat Ryan. The former New York Jets and University of Tennessee quarterback has spent many years analyzing the game, and provides listeners with a unique description of the action. Larry Stone enters his third season as executive producer/gameday host for the Tennessee NFL network. Stone won numerous honors for news and sports programming while with the University of North Carolina Radio Network and its flagship station, WCHL, Chapel Hill.

Gameday coverage begins three hours prior to kickoff with the Tennessee Tailgate Show on Groovin' Hits 104.5, with Stone, Keith, Ryan, network producer Jon Justice and sideline reporter Cody Allison. The show features the latest Titans news and originates from the Titans Experience, outside the stadium. The network signs on one hour prior to kickoff with the award-winning Titans Countdown. After the game, fans get reaction from players and coaches on the Lockerroom Report, and give reaction on Titans Talkback, featuring calls from across the mid south. The day concludes with the 5th Quarter Show on Groovin' Hits 104.5, as Stone and former Tennessee and Vanderbilt coach Doug Mathews put the final touches on the day's action.

In addition to gameday coverage, Titans Radio offers fans twice-daily updates on the team. The Titans Report airs across the network during morning and afternoon drive. Mike Keith hosts the GTE Wireless Jeff Fisher Show each Tuesday night from 6-7 p.m. central. Live from O'Charley's in Brentwood, the show provides fans across the region with an exclusive chance to talk with the Titans head coach.

TITANS ON THE AIR

For the third straight season, all four Titans preseason games and the "Jeff Fisher Show" can be seen across three states in the region, including in Nashville on WKRN (Channel 2). WKRN Sports Director John Dwyer will handle the play-by-play with Nashville sports talk show host George Plaster providing commentary.

Dwyer also will host the "Jeff Fisher Show," which can be seen live from Planet Hollywood in Nashville every Monday night on Channel 2 throughout the season. The 30-minute show features highlights from the game, complete game evaluation from Coach Fisher, special features, and a different Titans player each week. Local high school prep standouts will be honored each week, in addition to a Titans player or staff member for their charitable contributions to the greater Nashville community.

Planet Hollywood in Nashville is the site of the "Jeff Fisher Show." Hosted by WKRN Sports Director John Dwyer, it airs during the season Monday nights on Channel 2 in Nashville.

Titans Owner K.S. "Bud" Adams, Jr., has spearheaded an active community effort by the Titans organization.

Titans Active in Community

The Tennessee Titans continue to place a high priority on their community relations effort. Since moving to Tennessee, the club has made more than 600 organizational appearances throughout the Mid-South.

The team has also donated hundreds of autographed items that has raised much-needed funds for area charities. Donations of auction items and non-paid player appearances are limited to groups with a 501 (c)(3) tax status.

For information concerning player appearances or donations to benefit area charities, you should call the Titans Community Relations Hotline at (615) 562-4019.

Al Del Greco was selected the 1998 Sprint Oilers Man-of-the-Year for his work in the community. Presenting the award is Stephen Wilson, winner of the Sprint NFL Good Sports Writing Program.

Tennessee Students Shine in Titans Art Contest

One of four $1,000 first place winners was Tennessee: Music of the South (acrylic) submitted by Stacy Whitley, a ninth-grader at Brentwood High School. The club also awarded $750 to the runner-up in each of the four grades.

The Titans held a statewide art contest in which students grades 9-12 were asked to submit their vision of Tennessee. The contest was not about football, but rather students' views on Tennessee's rich history, nature or culture. Nearly 1,100 entries were received with nine winning cash prizes and 150 were selected and will be displayed in the Titans' stadium this year. The contest was co-sponsored by the Tennessee Department of Education and First American Bank.

Joe Giles, Director of Arts Curriculum for the Tennessee Department of Education (at podium) is joined by the other judges for the art contest Feb. 17.

General Manager Floyd Reese (left) joined Mr. Adams in presenting a check for $80,000 to Bethlehem Centers last fall. The gift was a grant from the team and NFL Charities. One of only 16 grants awarded nationally, the funds will upgrade the football field at Nashville's Martin Luther King Magnet School, where more than 200 children, ages five to 14, compete in the Mid-State Youth Football League.

For information on our various programs, call the Titans community relations hotline at (615) 565-4019.

Titans wives and family members also play an active role in the Nashville community. From L to R: Loretta Runyan, Rakhel Jackson, M'Lissa Snead, and Donna George collect toys and cash donations at the December Toys for Tots stadium drive.

The inaugural Tennessee Titans Charity Golf Classic & Willis Corroon Junior Golf Outing was held June 5-6 and was a huge success, raising more than $50,000 for The Salvation Army's Red Shield Family Initiative. The Willis Corroon Junior Golf Outing was superbly conducted by Chuck Beasley and his staff at the Little Course at Aspen Grove and at Golf House of Tennessee. Nashville resident and PGA TOUR member Brad Fabel also gave a brief demonstration for the 35 children attending. Sunday's tournament was held at Legends Club of Tennessee's Ironhorse Course. First-place prizes were awarded in two flights with the teams led by kicker Al Del Greco (United Parcel Service team) and special teams coach Alan Lowry (O'Charley's team) winning the top honors.

TENNESSEE TITANS CARAVAN

Nearly 60 cities in five states visited. Nearly 10,000 miles traveled. Almost 20,000 people directly touched. Numerous schools, youth centers and medical facilities were all visited, along with restaurants, malls and other shops. Those are the final tallies from The 1999 Tennessee Titans Caravan.

in their native Alabama. All-Pro running back Eddie George packed them in in Clarksville and Southern Kentucky. Wide receivers Kevin Dyson and Derrick Mason signed autographs in Franklin. Guard Evan Pilgrim met the masses in Murfreesboro. Guard Jason Layman and quarterback Steve Matthews were huge hits while making multiple stops all over Middle Tennessee. Newly acquired fullback Lorenzo Neal acquired fans quickly in Memphis. And Titans backers in Chattanooga could not get enough of All-Pro tight end Frank Wycheck.

Maybe the most incredible story of The 1999 Tennessee Titans Caravan, however, came on March 16 in Camden, Tennessee. Quarterback Steve "Air" McNair had already drawn huge crowds in Jackson, Tennessee earlier that day. The stop in Camden on behalf of WFWL/WRJB Radio would be the day's last and it was expected to be large. But as the Campers Corner RV pulled into the Camden McDonald's, no one in the group was

After a three-day tour in 1998 produced very positive results, the Titans banded together with their radio network to plan a much more extensive caravan for '99. The plan was simple: take the Tennessee Titans to the people of the Mid-South over a two-month period. In December of 1998, Titans Vice-President for community relations Bob Hyde, director of broadcasting Mike Keith and Titans Radio operations manager Larry Stone spent hours mapping out the trips and setting the caravan schedule. Stone and Titans Radio promotions director Monica Petty then set up visits with Titans Radio affiliates. Finally, Titans media relations director Tony Wyllie and director of player development Al Smith secured players to make the visits.

Traveling in a specially-decorated, 31-foot RV from Campers' Corner, The 1999 Tennessee Titans Caravan hit the road on March 8 for a two-day swing through East Tennessee. The best-known Titan of all, head coach Jeff Fisher, was aboard for stops in six cities. The results were predictable: thousands turned out to get autographs and pictures from the popular Fisher. The coach got The 1999 Tennessee Titans Caravan off to a rousing start.

Next, wide receiver Joey Kent and kicker Al Del Greco went over big quite ready for what they would witness. Staff members from the Camden Police and the Benton County Sheriff's Department were on hand to control a crowd that was backed out of every door at McDonald's. Inside, the throng of people had no room to move. "Packed" was an understatement. It would take a big effort from a weary McNair, who had already put in 12 hours of signing and smiling. McNair handled the situation with aplomb, patiently signing every autograph and smiling for every picture. With hundreds of people totally satisfied, McNair then took the time to visit with the McDonald's kitchen staff. Afterwards, he took pictures with all of the law enforcement officials who had given their time to make the visit run so smoothly. The visit lasted 30 minutes longer than expected so everyone was touched by the efforts of the young Titans star.

The biggest winners of The 1999 Tennessee Titans Caravan were youngsters. Virtually all autograph and picture opportunities were scheduled after school hours so that kids would be able to attend and meet the players.

"From the moment Mr. Adams announced he was moving the team to Tennessee, the Titans have spent countless hours listening to what our young fans have said about our team," said Hyde. "It was great to give our fans throughout the Mid-South the chance to meet our players personally and begin that first step of bonding with their newfound NFL heroes."

The 1999 Tennessee Titans Caravan was about starting that bonding and building that future. By giving of their time, Jeff Fisher and the Titans players got the club's first full year in Nashville off to an incredible start. Clearly, The 1999 Tennessee Titans Caravan has "fanned the NFL flame" in the Mid-South.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

- A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
- Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.
- Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
- Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
- Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.
- Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.
- Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
- Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.
- Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.
- Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.
- Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.
- Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.
- Anti-Inflammatory - Any agent which prevents inflammation (such as aspirin or ibuprofen).
- Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).
- Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).
- Arthroscope - An instrument used for visualization of the interior of a joint cavity; sometimes referred to as "scope."
- Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.
- Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).
- Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.
- Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
- Avascular Necrosis - Death of a part due to lack of circulation (can occur in the elbow from throwing).
- Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.
- Axilla - The armpit.
- Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.
- Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).
- Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for blending the elbow.
- Bone scan - "Radionuclide Imaging," which is useful to demonstrate stress fracture not evident on routine x-rays.
- Brachial Plexus - Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae running down the arm.
- Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.
- Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.
- C.P.R. - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of the blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.
- Calcaneus - The heel bone.
- Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.
- Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital - Existing before birth; to be born with.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortisone - An anti-inflammatory medication.

Costochondral - The cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Ecchymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte - Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenohumeral - The shoulder socket, containing the glenoid, the humeral head and the labrum.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Heat Cramps - Painful muscle spasms of arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolyte.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide fascial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix denoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbosacral - Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscus - Crescent shaped cartilage usually pertaining to the knee joint.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metacarpals - Five long bones of hand, just below fingers.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Mobilization - Passive stretching movements performed by a therapist at a slow speed slow enough that a patient can stop the movement.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for evert the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Referred Pain - Pain felt in undamaged area of body away from actual injury.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Shin splint - A catch-all syndrome describing pain either in the front of the lower leg or on the inner aspect of the leg.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis - Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Talus - The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Turf Burn - Abrasion resulting from contact with artificial turf in which one or more layers of skin are removed.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Titans players, coaches, and front office staff fulfill hundreds of interview requests throughout the season. They can be made available by contacting the club's media relations department.

TITANS MEDIA POLICY

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials will not be issued to free-lance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Beginning this season, credentials issued on a season-long basis and will display the reporter's/photographer's picture on the credential, making it non-transferable. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Tony Wyllie, Director of Media Relations, Tennessee Titans, 460 Great Circle Rd., Nashville, TN 37228, or by fax to (615) 565-4105. REQUESTS MUST BE RECEIVED AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO A HOME GAME.

PARKING: Parking for Titans games also must be applied for via written request. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game day. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked adjacent to Gate 6. A parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL-CALL: The media entrance is located at Gate 6. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window at Gate 6. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Beginning this season, photographers who are credentialed for sideline access will be required to wear a special vest. Vests will be issued on a season-long and game-by-game basis. Visiting photographers must return the vests after the game to security. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Titans' and visitors' interview rooms after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHY OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE LOCKER ROOM. With five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, take the media elevator or stairs to the field level. With two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, media members will be allowed on the field. NO INTERVIEWS ARE ALLOWED ON THE PLAYING FIELD. Jeff Fisher's postgame interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Titans interview room across from the Titans' locker room. Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the multibox behind the camera platform to ease congestion at the podium. Players will be available approximately 10 minutes after the game when the locker room is open. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitors' interview room adjacent to the visiting locker room.

PRESS BOX: The press box phone numbers are (615) 565-4450 (home p.r.) and (615) 565-4452 (visiting p.r.).

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom is located at the Titans' practice facility at MetroCenter. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, Titans information, NFL news releases and other information are available. The phone number in the media workroom is (615) 565-4116.

JEFF FISHER INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Jeff Fisher will conduct a weekly news conference at 12:15 p.m. on Mondays in the Practice Facility Auditorium. He will also be available following practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Titans' locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. Tuesday is the players' day off. The locker room is open to the media on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Titans' media relations office. Interviews may be conducted in person or by phone. Please call in advance when possible to schedule.

PRESS RELEASES: The Titans' weekly press releases, as well as other news and information on the club, can be accessed on the team's official web site at www.titansonline.com. Members of the media can also access league information from the NFL's media site at www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official web site address is www.nfl.com.
